1. Complaints Alleging Unlawful Discrimination, Including Discriminatory Harassment, Intimidation and/or Bullying

All complaints alleging unlawful discrimination, including conduct prohibited by the District's Nondiscrimination/Harassment Policy – BP 1017.2, and Sexual Harassment Policy – BP 5015.17, as well as other discriminatory intimidation, harassment, or bullying shall be handled in accordance with the following procedure and shall be investigated and resolved within 60 calendar days of the district's receipt of the complaint. (5 CCR 4631) Such complaints shall be investigated using this procedure regardless of whether the alleged harassment occurred on or off campus.

Recordkeeping: The compliance officer shall maintain a log of complaints received. (Education Code 49013) The District Compliance Officer shall also maintain a record of actions taken by the District in response to each complaint. The record shall include documentation of the steps taken during an investigation, including interview summaries and all information required for compliance with 5 CCR 4631 and 4633.

A. Reports and Complaints:

Any student, parent/guardian, third party, or other individual or organization who believes that he/she or another student or group has been subjected to unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, or who has witnessed such conduct, whether the conduct initially occurred on or off campus, may report the conduct orally to any school employee or administrator, and/or file a formal written complaint under these procedures.

i. Oral reports to any school employee or administrator

- a. A staff member who receives a report of discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, shall, within one school day of receiving the report, notify the site Principal/designee. In addition, any school employee who observes any incident of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying involving a student shall, within one school day, report this observation to the Principal/designee, whether or not the victim makes a report.
 - o Where an oral report is made of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying involving the Principal/designee to whom the report would ordinarily be communicated, the employee who receives the report or who observes the incident shall instead report to the Compliance Officer within one school day.
- b. The Principal/designee shall, within one day of receiving an oral report of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, shall inform the individual making the report of the resolution options under these procedures, including the right to file a written complaint. If a complainant is unable to put a complaint in writing due to conditions such as a disability or illiteracy, district staff shall assist him/her in the filing of the complaint. (5 CCR 4600)
- c. If the individual making the oral report does not want to be identified or does not give names of the perpetrators, the school may still have a duty to respond in some way depending upon the seriousness of the allegations and the risk of future harm to the student or others.

ii. Formal written complaint under these procedures with the District Compliance Officer

If a written complaint is submitted to a school site administrator, the administrator shall, within two school days of receiving it, send the complaint to the District Compliance Officer.

B. Interim Measures.

After a report or complaint is made, the responsible administrator (Principal/designee and/or the Compliance Officer) shall determine whether interim measures are necessary to stop, prevent or address the effects of discrimination, including discriminatory intimidation or retaliation, harassment, or bullying during and pending any informal resolution and/or investigation, such as placing students in separate classes or transferring a student to a class taught by a different teacher. Interim measures will be implemented in a manner that minimizes the burden on the individual who was the target of the discrimination.

- C. Though an incident of alleged harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying as defined within this policy may occur off campus, if the effects of the off-campus incident result in harassment, intimidation, or bullying at school that is sufficiently serious to interfere with or limit the targeted student's ability to participate in or benefit from the education program, the school must respond promptly and effectively to eliminate the harassment that occurs at school, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects. Such response may include discipline of the alleged harasser in accordance with applicable law and as provided in Board Policy (BP) 5015.17. Other possible responses include, but are not limited to, those listed in this AR under Section G – Remedial Action.

D. Optional Informal Resolution at the Site Level

When a written complaint alleging unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, against an individual is submitted under these procedures, with the consent of the individual who is the subject of the complaint and his/her parent/guardian, the site Principal/designee may engage in informal efforts to resolve the complaint. The Principal/designee will notify the District Compliance Officer that informal resolution has been requested. The informal resolution process must be completed within 10 days of receipt of the complaint.

The Principal/designees will notify the individual who is the subject of the complaint and his or her parent of the right to terminate informal resolution at any time and request that the Compliance Officer proceed with investigation of the complaint.

The individual who is the subject of the complaint or his/her parent/guardian may not be asked or required to meet directly with the accused individual as part of the informal resolution process. The subject of the complaint or parent/guardian filing the complaint, or their representative, must be advised that he or she may file a formal complaint at any time during or after the informal process,

Optional Mediation: In cases of student-on-student unlawful discrimination including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, when the student who complained, his/her parent, and the accused student so agree, the Principal/designee may arrange for them to resolve the complaint informally with the help of a counselor, teacher, administrator, or trained mediator.

At the conclusion of 10 days, the principal/designee will document whether informal resolution has been successful in resolving the complaint to the satisfaction of subject of the complaint and his/her parent/guardian, and will notify the District Compliance Officer in writing of the outcome.

E. Formal Complaint

i. Initiation of Investigation

The District Compliance Officer shall initiate an impartial investigation of an allegation of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, within five school days of receiving a formal complaint under this procedure. The time may be extended if informal resolution is undertaken pursuant to 2 above. However in all cases investigation must begin within 10 days of receipt of the complaint unless the District Compliance Officer has confirmed that the complaint has been resolved informally to the satisfaction of the subject of the complaint and his/her parent/guardian.

When a student is reported to be engaging in unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying, against an individual off campus, the District Compliance Officer shall investigate and document the activity and shall identify specific facts or circumstances that explain the impact or potential impact on school activity, school attendance, or the subject of the complaint's educational performance.

If the Compliance Officer receives an anonymous complaint or media report about alleged unlawful discrimination including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, he/she shall determine whether it is appropriate to pursue an investigation considering the specificity and reliability of the information, the seriousness of the alleged incident, and whether any individuals can be identified who were subjected to the alleged harassment.

A complainant's refusal to provide the district's investigator with documents or other evidence related to the allegations in the complaint, failure or refusal to cooperate in the investigation, or engagement in any other obstruction of the investigation may result in the dismissal of the complaint because of a lack of evidence to support the allegation. (5 CCR 4631)

In accordance with law, the district shall provide the investigator with access to records and/or other information related to the allegation in the complaint. (5 CCR 4631)

ii. Initial Interview with the Subject of the Complaint

At the beginning of an investigation, the Compliance Officer shall describe the district's complaint procedure to the subject of the complaint and his/her parent or guardian, and discuss what actions are being sought in response to the complaint. The subject of the complaint shall have an opportunity to describe the incident, identify witnesses who may have relevant information and provide other evidence or information leading to evidence of the alleged conduct.

If the subject of the complaint and/or his or her parent/guardian requests confidentiality, he/she shall be informed that such a request may limit the district's ability to investigate or take other action. If the subject of the complaint insists that his or her name not be revealed, the Compliance Officer should nevertheless take all reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the complaint consistent with the request.

iii. Investigation Process

The Compliance Officer shall keep the complaint and allegation confidential, except as necessary to carry out the investigation or take other subsequent necessary action. (5 CCR 4964)

The Compliance Officer shall interview individuals who have information relevant to the investigation, including, but not limited to, the subject of the complaint and, where appropriate, his or her parents/guardians, the person accused of unlawful discrimination, anyone who witnessed the reported conduct, and anyone mentioned as having relevant information. The Compliance Officer will also review any records, notes, or statements related to the complaint and may take other steps such as visiting the location where the conduct is alleged to have taken place.

When necessary to carry out his/her investigation or to protect student safety, and consistent with federal and state privacy laws, the Compliance Officer also may discuss the complaint with the Superintendent or designee, the parent/guardian of the accused individual if the accused individual is a student, a teacher or staff member whose knowledge of the students involved may help in determining the facts, law enforcement and/or child protective services, and district legal counsel or the district's risk manager.

Interviews of the alleged victim, alleged perpetrator, and all relevant witnesses are conducted privately, separately, and are confidential. At no time will the alleged perpetrator and victim be interviewed together.

Interviews and other information gathered will be documented. Documentation of complaints and their resolution will be maintained for a minimum of two years.

(cf. 5141.4 - Child Abuse Prevention and Reporting)
(cf. 5138 - Conflict Resolution)

iv. Factors in Reaching a Determination

In reaching a decision about the complaint, the Compliance Officer may take into account:

- b. The details and consistency of each person's account
- c. Evidence of how the subject of the complaint reacted to the incident
- d. Evidence of any past instances of unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, or other misconduct by the accused individual

To judge the severity of the unlawful discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation and/or bullying, the Compliance Officer may take into consideration:

- b. The type, frequency, and duration of the misconduct
- c. The age race, gender/gender identity and/or disability of the subject of the complaint and the individual accused of the conduct, and the relationship between them
- d. The number of persons engaged in the alleged conduct
- e. The size of the school, location of the incidents, and context in which they occurred
- f. Other incidents of discrimination at the school

v. Written Report on Findings and Follow-Up

The district's decision shall be in writing and sent to the complainant. (5 CCR 4631)

The district's decision shall be written in English and, when required by Education Code 48985, in the complainant's primary language. Additionally, when otherwise necessary

Individual remedies offered or provided to the subject of the complaint, such as counseling, academic remedies, or other measures taken to eliminate any hostile environment and prevent the discrimination from recurring.

Systemic measures the school has taken to eliminate a hostile environment and prevent recurrence may include counseling and academic support services for other affected students, training for faculty and staff, revisions to the school's policies, and campus climate surveys.

- e. Notice that the individual who was the subject of the complaint and his/her parent/guardian should immediately report any reoccurrence of the conduct or retaliation to the District compliance officer or principal/designee
- f. Notice of the complainant's right to appeal the district's decision within 15 calendar days to the CDE and procedures to be followed for initiating such an appeal

Any decision concerning a complaint of discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying shall include a notice that the complainant must wait until 60 calendar days have elapsed from the filing of an appeal with the CDE before pursuing state law civil law remedies. (Education Code 262.3)

F. Remedial Action

Remedial action will be designed to end the discriminatory conduct, to prevent its recurrence, and to address its effects on the subject of the complaint. Examples of appropriate action include:

1. Interventions for the individual who engaged in the discrimination, such as parent or supervisor notification, discipline (discussed below), counseling, or training.
2. Interventions for the subject of the complaint, such as counseling, academic support, and information on how to report further incidents of discrimination.
3. Separating the subject of the complaint and the individual who engaged in the discrimination, provided the separation does not penalize the subject of the complaint.
4. Follow-up inquiries with the subject of the complaint and witnesses to ensure that the discriminatory conduct has stopped and that they have not experienced any retaliation.
5. Training or other interventions for the larger school community to ensure that students, staff, and parents understand the types of behavior that constitute discrimination, that the District does not tolerate it, and how to report it.

In addition, the Compliance Officer shall ensure that the individual who was the target of discrimination and his/her parent/guardian, are informed of the procedures for reporting any subsequent problems. The Compliance Officer shall make follow-up inquiries to see if there have been any new incidents or retaliation and shall keep a record of this information.

G. Disciplinary Action

In identifying appropriate disciplinary action, repeated incidents and/or multiple victims will result in more severe penalties.

Individuals who knowingly file false complaints of discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, and/or bullying or give false statements in an investigation shall be subject to discipline by measures up to and including suspension, expulsion, and or dismissal, as shall any individual who is found to have retaliated against another in violation of this policy

6. A copy of the district's uniform complaint procedures
7. Other relevant information requested by the CDE

The CDE may directly intervene in the complaint without waiting for action by the district when one of the conditions listed in 5 CCR 4650 exists, including cases in which the district has not taken action within 60 calendar days of the date the complaint was filed with the district.

Civil Law Remedies

A complainant may pursue available civil law remedies outside of the district's complaint procedures. Complainants may seek assistance from mediation centers or public/private interest attorneys. Civil law remedies that may be imposed by a court include, but are not limited to, injunctions and restraining orders.

For complaints alleging discrimination, including discriminatory harassment, intimidation, bullying, or sexual harassment based on state law, a complainant shall wait until 60 calendar days have elapsed from the filing of an appeal with the CDE before pursuing civil law remedies, provided the district has appropriately and in a timely manner apprised the complainant of his/her right to file a complaint in accordance with 5 CCR 4622. The moratorium does not apply to injunctive relief and to discrimination complaints based on federal law.

Complaints alleging discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex/gender, disability or age may also be filed with the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights. (www.ed.gov/ocr) Such complaints must generally be filed within 180 days of the alleged discrimination.
