

Randolph County School System "STAR³ Students" for December 2023

Archdale Elementary School – Malayna Thomack – 3rd grade

Malayna is selected for Archdale's Star³ student because she comes to school every day with a smile! She brightens everyone's day with her smile and kind heart! She always has a positive attitude and is very eager to learn. She gives 100 percent effort on any assignment or activity that she is attempting. Malayna goes above and beyond in everything that she does at school. She is respectful and considerate to her peers in class. She is new to Archdale this year and has been a great addition to the school. We are excited to have her represent Archdale Elementary as our STAR³ student.

Hopewell Elementary School – Saint Klein – 3rd grade

Saint always comes to school with a smile and his smile and attitude are contagious. He consistently displays a remarkable willingness, eagerness, and enthusiasm for learning. Despite the challenges he encounters, he consistently demonstrates resilience and perseverance, navigating obstacles with determination and a commendable spirit. Even when mastering a skill takes time and effort, he strives to understand and always works hard to persevere with any task assigned. Above all, Saint is kind and compassionate. He is a positive role model, is always willing to help, and is a great friend to others. Saint radiates kindness and possesses a genuinely sweet spirit. We are proud to name Saint Klein as our Star³ student.

John Lawrence Elementary School – Mia Roberts – 5th grade

Mia Roberts is a kind student who goes above and beyond each day. She is always willing to help however she can and sets a wonderful example for all students. In class, Mia is very attentive and eager to learn. She works hard at serving on safety patrol, as a library helper, on the news team, and the Battle of the Books team! She stays busy but is committed and works hard at everything she does.

She is very courteous and a pleasure to teach! We are very proud of Mia and believe she deserves the Star³ award for John Lawrence Elementary School!!

New Market Elementary School – Sadie Hardin – 2nd grade

Sadie Hardin is a terrific example of what it means to be a Star Student! She comes to school every day with a smile on her face and is ready to learn. Whenever she enters the room she always fills the room with joy and with her infectious smile. It would be hard to be in a bad mood when she is around you. She is always willing to lend a helping hand. Whether it is to another student or to a teacher. Sadie is a hard worker and always does her work to the best of her abilities. She is kind to all her fellow classmates and will never shy away from making a new friend. Sadie is always respectful and courteous to everyone she comes into contact with here at school. We are proud to have Sadie represent New Market Elementary as our STAR³ student.

Randolph Early College High School – Dallas Harrelson – 10th grade

RECHS is honored to recognize Dallas Harrelson as our Star³ Student for December. One of his teachers states, "In my entire career as a teacher, Dallas Harrelson stands out as one of the finest students I have ever had the honor to teach. He embodies what it means to be a well-rounded RECHS Student. He is strong academically, but he is so much more. He is kind, humble, trustworthy, and helpful to others. My favorite quality about Dallas is that never tries to bring attention to himself. He throws himself into everything he does with a contagious smile. He embraces tasks because he loves to learn, be challenged, and collaborate with others. He is passionate about helping others and has volunteered to participate in numerous volunteer community events as a member of Beta Club. In all he does, it is obvious that his actions are governed by a strong moral compass centered around the love of his family, his community, and his country." Dallas is truly a gift to RECHS as he gives his best effort on each assignment, participates with enthusiasm, and always has a smile on his face.

Trindale Elementary School – Allison Ritter – 5th grade

Allison Ritter is a 5th grader and very involved in the Dale. She is a member of the Student Council and Trindale's Elementary Battle Of the Books team. Allison is kind and courteous to her classmates, works hard in class, and treats adults with respect. She does her work with careful detail and loves to help others. She is a fantastic student to represent Trindale Elementary as the Star³ Student for December.

Trinity Elementary School – Aivley Turner – 3rd grade

Aivley is a phenomenal example of a Trinity Bulldog. She follows the Bulldog Creed daily. She strives for success in all subjects and all classes. She is comfortable with making mistakes and using them to help her learn. Aivley is a friend to all students. She is respectful to her friends and to all of the teachers in the building. She constantly helps others without being asked. When completing assignments, she is a diligent worker. She is responsible in and out of the classroom. Aivley is a perfect candidate for the STAR³ Student Award! Trinity Elementary School is proud to recognize Aivley Turner as our STAR³ Student for December.

Trinity High School – Spencer May – 12th grade

Spencer is an all-around great student! He is eager to learn and participate in class. He is currently playing multiple parts in Macbeth and encourages his classmates to participate as well. He is very inclusive with group projects and makes others feel welcome when working with him. Spencer works hard in class and holds himself accountable for his learning. Not only is he a peer helper during the day, but he is known to help out when needed after school for such activities as Homecoming setup. Spencer demonstrates leadership on the soccer and wrestling teams at Trinity High School. He goes out of his way to make everyone around him better. He is disciplined and trains to win in every area of his life. Spencer represents our school with pride and has become a well-rounded leader on our campus!

Trinity Middle School – Tony Zou – 8th grade

Tony Zou is a phenomenal student who demonstrates discipline, integrity, and resourcefulness. He is always polite and respectful and leads by example. Tony is well respected by his peers and strives to do his best in every class, every single day. He is a team player and a leader when he is in a group setting and is also an independent thinker who can persevere with success on his own. He is a positive role model for his peers and sets the bar high in academics as well as behavior. He is goal-oriented and focused on doing what is needed to be a successful member of society. We foresee Tony doing great things in the future with aspirations to attend Randolph County Early College High School next school year. Trinity Middle School is very proud to have Tony Zou represent the Bulldogs as our Star³ Student for December.

Wheatmore High School – Bailey Camacho Rodriguez – 12th grade

Wheatmore High School is proud to announce Bailey Camacho Rodriguez as our STAR³ student. Bailey has a kind heart and a drive to help those around her. She can be found assisting the students in the Functional Skills Classroom around the school, often taking the responsibility of teaching and enriching their education. In addition to keeping exemplary grades, Bailey has also used her knowledge of the Spanish language to assist in the Spanish Immersion Program at Hopewell Elementary School. Bailey is currently planning to further her education in Special Education to continue working with students with special needs. Her skills and dedication to individuals with special needs will make her an integral part of building an understanding and beneficial community for everyone. Wheatmore High School is proud to recognize Bailey as Wheatmore's STAR³ Student for December.

Wheatmore Middle School – Eli Bailey – 7th grade

Eli is a very polite young gentleman. He is always respectful to his teachers and works well with classmates. He tries his best on all assignments by doing quality work and his best effort. Eli represents our school with pride and class, both in the classroom and on the field. For these and many other reasons, Eli Bailey is our STAR³ student for Wheatmore Middle School.
