General Reminders and Information

Please bring a water bottle each day

SOL tests are coming soon. Here are our dates:

May 1st - Reading SOL

May 8th- Math SOL

Reading - Mrs. Suchernick We will continue to review for our SOL test. Students have been working really hard. Keep reading at home! I am missing many books from my classroom library from back near Christmas. Please have your student check their backpacks and rooms to return the books as soon as possible. Some students are still reading and can return when finished. Most of the books have a sticker on the back! asuchernick@rappahannockschools.us	Science/Social Studies—Mrs. Hummill jhummill@rappahannockschools.us We will be reviewing for the upcoming SOLs in reading and math.
Math—Mrs. Snyder csnyder@rappahannockschools.us We have officially covered all of our math SOLs! For the next few weeks we will be focusing on reviewing for our SOL tests. Homework: A homework page will go home on Monday, April 22nd and will be due back on Friday, April 26th. This will be our last homework assignment this year!	Resource - Mrs. Aylor Students will continue reading Charlotte’s Web and students will continue exploring the novel through Literature Circles. Students will begin reviewing math skills over the next few weeks. If you are interested, IXL Arena is a great resource for students to practice at home. caylor@rappahannockschools.us
