Dear Parishioners,

We are honored to welcome Fr. Joe Laramie with us this weekend as he preaches the Diocesan Eucharistic Revival Series, as well as offer the Masses in our parishes for this second Sunday of Lent. I hope many, not only from our parishes but from far and wide, will come to hear a message of the great gift of the Eucharist and grow in our reverence and appreciation of the Eucharist.

Last Monday, I had a regular checkup with the gastroenterologist in Mankato. Even though I was just there for a 'procedure' in September, I needed to be seen again to update my medication for my colitis. I had an incident of my stomach issues, and because I immediately took something for it, by the time I got into the doctor, I was fine. To be honest, though, I had a few other flare-ups since, but OTC medication seems to help eventually. While in Mankato, I visited with my sisters as we marked 2 years since my Mom's passing.

This weekend, we hear of the Transfiguration. It might seem odd to read this in Lent, as it most likely occurred in August (around the Feast of Booths). The Transfiguration hints at something important to remember during our Lenten fast. Jesus Christ is not a mere man – He is God-made-man.

He is not a man who is made a god, either. His transfiguration reveals His divinity, ever so briefly, to give the Apostles Peter, James, and John a sense of hope. Perhaps on the morning of the resurrection, the memory of what they witnessed on that holy mount helped them to muster the courage to run to the tomb to see what happened. Perhaps the glory St. John witnessed gave him the strength to stand at the foot of the cross in solemn vigil with the Blessed Mother.

As we travel through our Lent, we cannot allow the scandal of the cross detract from the glory of the One who so willingly mounted it for our salvation. We need the Transfiguration to remind us that Jesus really is God who has taken on flesh for us.

On Monday, I received a call from Tekton Ministries, the pilgrimage company I hoped to book a pilgrimage through for this September. Due to the situation in the Holy Land, I am rescheduling for 2025. We will hopefully be able to leave September 16, 2025, and return September 26 (leaving on a Tuesday and returning on a Friday). The itinerary will remain the same. Part of the reason is that even if the conflict ended immediately, there is a lack of hotels for pilgrims as they are currently occupied by displaced people. Relocation, renovations, and cleaning will take a while. I was given the option of relocation, but none of the options appealed to me.

In Christ,
Fr. Todd

FEBRUARY – CELEBRATE THE HOLY FAMILY

This February we should restore devotion to the Holy Family.

It would both honor the Holy Family and at the same time become a reminder to strengthen family life.

Mothers and fathers, we need to ask ourselves:

- Do we teach our children to pray, do we pray with them, both in and outside the home?
- Do we show them the love of God by our own love and affection for one another and our concern and care for all those in need through our works of mercy?
- Do we teach them about the suffering Jesus bore for them when they are sick and hurting?
- Do we dedicate our children to the Lord? Do we diligently prepare them for the sacraments and invoke the angels and saints, especially Mary and Joseph, to assist them and us?

“To live a good, Christian family life requires sacrifice, the renunciation of one's own wishes, and a reasonable mortification of self. If it is to be perfect, it requires complete victory over self-love. It requires a high degree of virtue, deep piety and living faith, much prayer, and a close union with God.” Benedict Baur, OSB

Lent one-word prayers can be offered silently or whispered during daily activities. They can offer a prayerful respite in the most mundane moments.

Week 1 of Lent – one word prayer: Silence

Speak this word into the busyness and noise of your life. Make it a prayer for quietness. Use it as a reminder to calm your own mind and heart. Let it be a request for more moments of silence during this holy season.
