2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA’s data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by “TFS” (too few students).

What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, blying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan]	Parent Surveys Student Surveys Teacher Surveys Social Media Parent Input Form (on school website)

What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people’s knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question “What do people think they know, believe, or can do?”)	Our school has a positive climate in which our students feel safe and parents are welcome. We have a drug and weapon free campus . The school needs to continue improve communication with parents in their primary language.

What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops)	Surveys, student grades, student attendance, Universal Screener- (Reading Inventory & Star Math), STAR Reading, Benchmark Data, assesslet data, previous GMAS Data and data components from SLDS, counseling and social work data, ticket sales at extracurricular events.

What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question “What did you do for whom?”)	Reading Inventory shows student performance at all levels from Beginning Reader through Advanced. The STAR Reading and STAR Math shows more information about student performance in these subject areas based on grade equivalent, scaled score and percentile ranking. Overall, writing is a weakness in the area of extended response. Lexile levels are improving across grade levels. Benchmark data guides teachers in reteaching, monitoring and accelerating students. This data also is used as an indicator for performance on GMAS. This year resulting from the pandemic, attendance is an issue; however we will continue to work with the social worker to improve our student attendance.

What achievement data did you use?	GMAS, Report Cards, Content Specific Benchmarks, Universal Screeners, MyAccess and Assesslet data, STAR Reading

What does your achievement data tell you?	Student achievement growth is needed in Mathematics, ELA , Social Studies and Science. Previous data showed that Lexile Scores were on an upward trend, however we now see that there is a regression in academic achievement as based on the information from the Reading Inventory, STAR Reading and STAR Math due to loss of instructional time from the pandemic.

What demographic data did you use?	Student information through infinite campus, SLDS, primary language surveys, migrant surveys, Georgia School Nutrition Free\Reduced Lunch Application
--	--

What does the demographic data tell you?	Low Socioeconomic Single Parent Families; many students being raised by grandparents; High Hispanic population; African American students are the minority.
