Demographics

Roosevelt Public School is located in rural Grant County in Carson, North Dakota. We are a school-wide Title 1 school. We currently have 52 students.

The community is known for their commitment to the town, churches, and the school. Carson is the county seat of Grant County. The majority of the families are ranchers. Some families also work locally at private businesses and government offices.

The school is the heartbeat of the town. People of all ages support the school through attending programs, volunteering, and mentoring. The continuous support strengthens the school's commitment to success.
