Thomson Middle School Teacher Receives Literacy Project Grant

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Mrs. Stacey Kincer from Thomson Middle School was awarded the Cheryl Daniels Memorial Literacy Project Grant from Delta Kappa Gamma (DKG), an international society for key women educators. Kincer, who is a reading coach, received $500 to expand her classroom library.

“I am very honored to receive the Cheryl Lynn Daniels Award for my classroom,” said Kincer. “My students and I will ensure we continue to share the love of reading through this generous grant.”

Dr. Amy Fouse, English Language Arts Coordinator, said, “Ms. Kincer is a teacher who models her love for reading with her students each and every day. She is an inspiration to her students and also to her colleagues!”

This is the third year this grant has been presented. One of Daniels’ wishes was to offer a grant for middle school classroom literacy projects. The grant is funded by donations in her memory, and DKG accepts donations in support of this and other grant funds. For more information about DKG, visit www.dkg.com.
