North Middle School Special Privilege Policy

Students at North Middle School are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is both academically and socially acceptable and in accordance to the code of conduct established by the Franklin County Board of Education. Therefore, misbehaviors may result in the revocation of special privileges and/or rewards.

Any student that meets the following criteria may have their field trip and/or other special privileges revoked for the semester and/or school year:

- Ten or more demerits per semester
- Three or more office referrals per semester
- One or more days of OSS per semester
- Any amount of time in alternative school *(entire school year)
- Failing more than one subject area

Furthermore, the administration and staff of North Middle School reserve the right to revoke any special privilege that is beyond the academic curriculum as punishment for misbehaviors in accordance with Franklin County School Board policy. This includes but is not limited to: non-academic field trips, pep rallies, school-wide assemblies, school dances, and class celebrations/parties as a reward for good behavior.

Each case will be reviewed by the administration.

In order to attend any field trip or non-academic school function outside of athletics, this form must be signed by both the student and parent/guardian and returned to the school office. Please make a copy for your own records.
