

5th Grade December Newsletter

Mrs. Bohman
Grade 5
December 4, 2023

Standards to Learn in December:

Math: * The Highly Proficient students can solve and create real-world problems in context involving multiplication of fractions and mixed numbers.

*The Highly Proficient student can solve, model, and create real-world division problems using fractions.

*The Highly Proficient student can explain how the division of whole numbers results in answers in the form of fractions. The Highly Proficient student can create word problems involving division of whole numbers leading to answers in the form of fractions or mixed numbers.

Reading: *The Highly Proficient student can analyze and summarize two or more main ideas of a text and explain how they are supported by key details.

*The Highly Proficient student can interpret information from multiple print or digital sources to answer complex questions or solve complex problems efficiently.

Writing: *The Highly Proficient student can produce clear and coherent writing appropriate to the task and purpose by planning, editing, revising, and rewriting using new approaches.

*The Highly Proficient student can write an informational text to thoroughly examine a topic using relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic.

Science: We are learning about gravitational force.

Social Studies:

We are learning about European Settlement in North America.

5th Grade Happenings:

On December 22, we will have our Winter Festival. We will do a variety of fun winter crafts and activities. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions. abohman@troysd287.org

- December 6- Late Start
- December 19- All School Field Trip- U of I Women's Basketball Game
- December 22- TES Music Concert
 - 5th-6th 8:30
 - 3rd - 4th 9:00
 - K-2nd 9:30
- December 22- Winter Festival (afternoon)
- December 23-January 7- Winter Break

Please check the Parent Portal on Troy School District's website, troysd287.org to monitor your child's academic progress.

Happy Holidays!

Spelling packets are due
Thursday, December 7
Spelling Test Friday,
December 8