APPLICANT DISCLOSURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, notice is given that a consumer report may be made in connection with your application for employment. The report may include information about your general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living, driving record history or social security number search for residency.

If you are denied employment, either wholly or partly, because of the information contained in this consumer report, a disclosure will be made to you for the name and address of the consumer reporting agency making such a report. If the report contains information about you that is a matter of public record, such as arrests, indictments, or convictions, you may also be informed of the name and address of any persons to whom the information is reported. You may also request a copy of this report.

The Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 prohibits discrimination on the basis of age with respect to individuals who are at least 40 years of age. This information is for consumer report purposes only.

I have read and understood the above notice.
