Troy High School

Parent Advisory Committee

Troy, Idaho

On the first Thursday of each month, the Troy High School Parent Advisory Committee (PAC) meets with Principal Aaron Dail to discuss a variety of school issues currently affecting our students. Committee members serve as a liaison between parents and the high school administration, and welcome calls regarding any aspect of the high school program. Meetings are scheduled for 6:30 am in THS Conference Room. Although representatives are appointed for each class, all interested parents are welcome to join the meeting at any time or volunteer to help on any of the committees listed below. See our web page for more information. <https://ths.troysd287.org/parentadvisorycommittee>

Mission Statement/Purpose

- To endeavor to offer sound advice and information to our principal, that we might assist and support in the task of providing a positive educational experience for the children of our community.
- To provide assistance to the staff and students of Troy High School.
- To represent to the best of our ability the needs, desires and attitudes of the parenting community and to assist in promoting the mission of Troy High School

Committee Membership

Parents are appointed to serve a Junior High or High School term. Members will serve on the committee while their student is in the 7-9 grades or 10-12 grades. Some parents may have more than one student in school at a time, but will only serve the term for the student for which they are assigned. Each class will have 2-3 parents who will serve on the committee at a time. The principal will appoint the offices of Chairman and Secretary.
