THIRD SUNDAY OF

Easter

MAY

2022

Jesus said to him,
"Feed my sheep."

John 21:17

CHURCH

The Easter season provides us an opportunity to reflect upon who we are as Church, in light of the first experiences of Jesus' followers. From today's Gospel, we realize that all we do is founded on our friendship with and trust in Jesus, as witnessed in Jesus' dialogue with Peter. From Revelation, in the image of Jesus as the sacrificial Lamb, we can anticipate suffering for the sake of love for God and for others. From the apostles' bold speech in Acts, we remember that when we stay true to the Gospel, even at great cost, we must always embody God's forgiveness toward those who resist God's invitation. The early Church struggled to understand how to live the way of Jesus, and we can expect no less struggle for ourselves. And like them, we may also know the joy of growing friendship with God along the way.

OBEYING GOD

In the first chapters of Acts, the apostles venture out energetically, soon after Pentecost, to proclaim the risen Jesus. Today's reading shows the Sanhedrin, the formal religious body that had condemned Jesus shortly before, now threatening the apostles. The Sanhedrin likely feared that Jesus' followers would, in vengeance for the Crucifixion, stir up a riot or even a violent revolt. The apostles, consistent with Jesus' own dealings with the authorities, proclaim Jesus' message of God's forgiveness of everyone, and refuse to incite violence.

It is a great challenge, as Peter said, to "obey God rather than man." Throughout history, when groups of God's people, inspired by God's dream for a just and free world, have spoken out non-violently against injustice and oppression, they have sought to obey God's summons. We the Church, while always mindful of the dangers of self-deception, are similarly called to discern and obey God in our own time and place.

REPEATED QUESTIONS

In today's Gospel, John sets the scene for Jesus' encounter with Peter, sitting by a "charcoal fire." There is just one other mention of a charcoal fire in John's Gospel: when Peter warms himself while awaiting Jesus' trial, and Peter goes on to deny knowing Jesus, three times. The evangelist directly links Jesus' three questions of Peter, "do you love me?", to Peter's three denials. Through his repeated questioning, Jesus helps Peter to face his actions fully, and to accept forgiveness fully as well.

When God invites us into prayer, we may be invited to enter into deep conversation with God about our lives. God can pose the same questions to us, again and again over time, to face what we might prefer to avoid: Can you forgive someone who has hurt you? Can you be more generous? Can you let go of obstacles to becoming more loving? And even: Do you love me? Jesus' encounter with Peter suggests that we can face such questions with deep trust in God.

LE PREGUNTÓ JESÚS
A SIMÓN PEDRO:
“SIMÓN, HIJO DE JUAN,
¿ME AMAS MÁS QUE ÉSTOS?”.

JUAN 21:15

TERCER DOMINGO DE PASCUA

1º DE MAYO DE 2022

En los primeros capítulos de los Hechos, los apóstoles se aventuran con energía, poco después de Pentecostés, a anunciar a Jesús resucitado. La lectura de hoy muestra al Sanedrín, el cuerpo religioso formal que había condenado a Jesús poco antes, amenazando ahora a los apóstoles. Es probable que el Sanedrín temiera que los seguidores de Jesús, en venganza por la crucifixión, provocaran un motín o incluso una revuelta violenta. Los apóstoles, en consonancia con el trato de Jesús con las autoridades, proclaman el mensaje de Jesús de que Dios perdona a todos, y se niegan a incitar a la violencia.

Es un gran desafío, como dijo Pedro, “obedecer a Dios antes que a los hombres”. A lo largo de la historia, cuando grupos del pueblo de Dios, inspirados por el sueño de Dios de un mundo justo y libre, se han manifestado de forma no violenta contra la injusticia y la opresión, han tratado de obedecer la llamada de Dios. Nosotros, la Iglesia, aunque siempre conscientes de los peligros del autoengaño, estamos igualmente llamados a discernir y obedecer a Dios en nuestro propio tiempo y lugar.

PREGUNTAS REPETIDAS

En el Evangelio de hoy, Juan prepara la escena del encuentro de Jesús con Pedro, sentado junto a un “fuego de carbón”. Sólo hay otra mención de un fuego de carbón en el Evangelio de Juan: cuando Pedro está calentándose mientras espera el juicio de Jesús, y éste niega tres veces conocer a Jesús. El evangelista vincula directamente las tres preguntas de Jesús a Pedro, “¿me amas?”, con las tres negaciones de Pedro. A través de sus repetidas preguntas, Jesús ayuda a Pedro a enfrentarse plenamente a sus acciones, y a aceptar también plenamente el perdón.

Cuando Dios nos invita a la oración, podemos ser invitados a entrar en una conversación profunda con Dios sobre nuestras vidas. Dios puede plantearnos las mismas preguntas, una y otra vez a lo largo del tiempo, para enfrentarnos a lo que quizá prefiramos evitar: ¿Puedes perdonar a alguien que te ha hecho daño? ¿Puedes ser más generoso? ¿Puedes dejar de lado los obstáculos para ser más cariñoso? E incluso: ¿Me amas? El encuentro de Jesús con Pedro sugiere que podemos enfrentarnos a esas preguntas con una profunda confianza en Dios.

"I HAVE MY CONFIDENCE BACK"

Finally! A local acupuncturist is helping people break free from constant symptoms associated with Peripheral Neuropathy.

Ron was noticing symptoms of Peripheral Neuropathy for a few years. It started with tingling and burning in his feet and then progressed to numbness and coldness. Ron said he was having a difficult time driving because he wasn't feeling the pedals well under his feet.

Over 3 million people in the US have Peripheral Neuropathy. Causes include chemotherapy, Diabetes, circulatory problems, and age. Most people have been told there are no treatments and they "just have to live" with the symptoms.

Local Acupuncturist Dr. Kristen Bohnet, DC, LAc, can help. She is using the time-tested science of Acupuncture and a technology originally developed by NASA that assists in increasing blood flow and expediting recovery to treat this debilitating disease. She gets remarkable results with neuropathy. Following a series of treatments, Ron said "I can feel the gas and brake pedals again! Before working with Dr. Bohnet, I had stopped driving. Now I have my confidence back and I'm driving again."

Most common symptoms:

- pain, tingling, burning, weakness or numbness in arms, hands, legs or feet.
- sudden, sharp, stabbing or shocking pain sensations
- loss of balance and falling

If you're living in discomfort, or struggling with symptoms of Peripheral Neuropathy, contact Bohnet Acupuncture TODAY to schedule your consultation. Find out if you are a candidate for her Peripheral Neuropathy Program.
