

Important Dates

YEA!!!!!!! ACAP Testing is over.

April 17-Coosada's Spring Carnival-Second grade is responsible for snack cakes. Please send in snack cakes as soon as you can. We also need items for the silent auction. We really your help. Please ask businesses you may know for a donation. Also ask them if they have items to donate for our silent auction. Any donation helps make the carnival enjoyable for the students.

April 18-PD for Teachers, no school for students

What we are studying this week.

Social Science: Scholastic News

Science: Earth's Landforms-students will research their topic, write a research report, make a poster, diorama, or some visual about their landform. They will give an oral presentation about their topic. These are due Wednesday, April 16. The students are doing the research and reports in class. The poster or diorama should be done at home.

Language Arts – Contractions-we are, there is, does not, I am, it is, did not, she is, they are, we will, she will, he would, I will. Please go over the contractions for these words. Use them in a sentence.

Possessives-showing ownership. The hands of the clock, the den of the tigers, the eyes of the crow, the hat of the man, the purse of the lady,

Language Arts/Reading – Water and Wind Changes the Earth-Tornadoes, erosion,

Math-Adding three-digit numbers with and without regrouping. Please practice this. Next week we will be doing subtraction

Spelling-words are in student folders. Please go over these. We have a test Monday, April 14.

I sent home some permission forms for the GOTCHA Party Monday, April 14. Those need to be signed and turned in Friday, April 11.

Tests next week: Monday, April 14-spelling, Tuesday-Language (contractions, possessives)

April 24, Topic 10 Math test-adding three-digit numbers. April 25, 5 min. Timed subtraction test.