- III. Call to the Audience
  - a. Lauren Klipp presented information about the Benjamin Franklin Museum on Wheels. The father/son duo will come to the school and provide two separate presentations-one In the MPR and one outside to spread out the classes. They will demonstrate the use of a printing press and offer history, engineering, and ELA discussions. The cost is $650.
- IV. Reports
  - a. Principal's Report- There will be movement with primary and secondary teachers with 4 teaching spots opening up in the new school year. Mrs. Nielsen accepted the position of Steam teacher. New teacher interviews will start in the near future. The kindergarten building is coming along as planned- teachers and administration have been deciding on paint and furniture options and will tour the building tomorrow. Lloyd construction will also begin construction on a regulation sized baseball diamond next week. Early bird open enrollment has been completed with a majority of offers accepted.
  - b. PTG Report- Sees candy fundraiser brought in $598. Read a thon has begun and papers have been sent out with students. Spirit stick and candy grams are being offered this week with the student council. PTG has purchased assorted balls for students. Each grade will have a different colored set of four balls and they cost about $200. Storage is still being discussed. They are requesting that we emphasize with everyone the importance of properly storing this sports equipment so it lasts. Looking into if we have basketball nets stored somewhere. There will be no Spring bingo this year. Field day is still on the schedule.
  - c. Student Council Report- Currently focusing on candy gram sales. The funds will be used for a field trip or activity.
- V. Discussion Items
  - a. Alicia Marrano says that the memorial is coming along. All mosaic pieces have been painted and fired. Three 6th graders are volunteering to help grout on Friday the 11th. They are hoping for more after school volunteers. Tuesday, the 15th is the earliest planned completion day.
- VI. Action Items
  - a. 5th grade request (See action item): Ben Franklin visit. Teresa Moe motioned to approve. Seconded by Marie Baca. All approved. Motion passed.
