YOUR HIGH # SCHOOL IS . . .

fun and cold weather and cheering together.

It's a field, oh so green and a homecoming queen.

It's a blazing bonfire and "more wood, make it higher!"

It's making a basket and a question — "ask it!"

It's "Hail to the Highlanders" and cheers from the bystanders,

It's a freshman's first fears and

It's chorus and sports and basketball courts.

It's Lick 'Em and Kids' Day and slave auction "Bid's Day."

It's baseball and tennis and being a menace.

It's a golfer's wide smile and running the mile.

It's a pep rally's noise and good-looking boys.

It's Scotlines and Crown Jewels and ball games with mules.

It's Towers and Teas and Volkswagon keys.

It's orange and black and Wilson and Mac.

It's talking in snatches and suede elbow patches.

It's parties and dances and love and romances.

It's junior-senior and 8:20 and homecoming and tests a' plenty.

It's a crutch and a cast and a crush that will last.

It's elephant jokes and Ellis's cokes.

It's dirty white sneakers and chemistry beakers.
It's new friends and old and seniors so bold.
It's just breaking up
and a gold trophy cup.
It's tests that are fair
and teachers who care.
It's graduation with a cap and a gown and a football team of worldwide renown.
It's glad, and so true

YOUR HIGH SCHOOL IS YOU

DEDICATION

Every year the staff of the Crown Jewel chooses one special person to honor. We chose our sponsor, and our friend.

We entered hopelessly; she showed the way. We asked; she answered.

We made mistakes; she corrected them. We did our best; she praised.

The whole school asked for a memory; she has given it to us in 172 pages. For all this, we lovingly dedicate our annual to her, "Miz Eddards."

WE HONOR . . .

Because of her ever-ready smile; because she is never too busy to help; because for all her hours of service to Lake Wales High School she has never asked for praise . . . we honor Mrs. Evelyn May.

Because she sponsored our class out of love, not duty; because she worked with us and for us; because she never ceased to care . . . we honor Miss Babe Warren . . . and we say thank you.

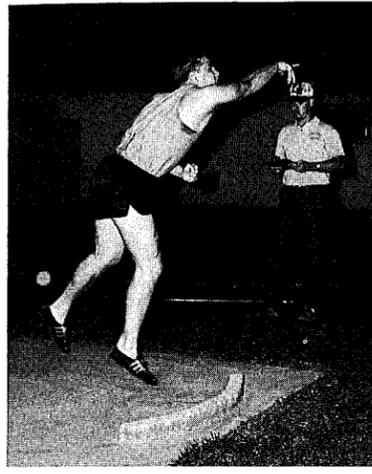

Because he has always done whatever he could do to help; because he has been a constant source of comfort both to winners and to losers; because for over thirty years he has always been out there . . . we honor Mr. Herb Wolfson.

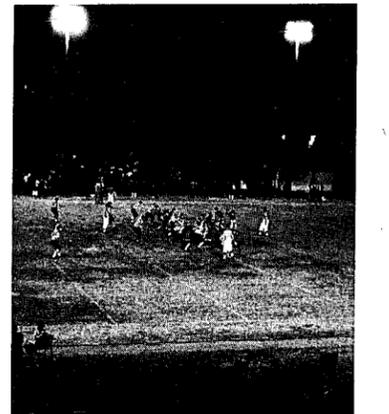

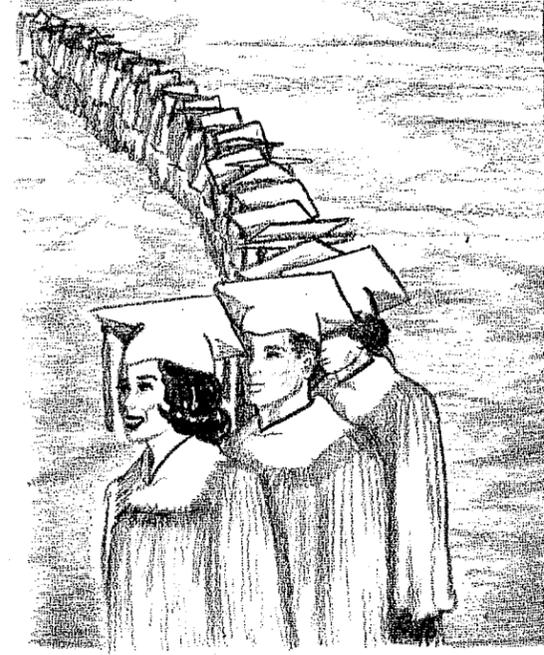

SPIRIT . . . . .

SERVICE . . .

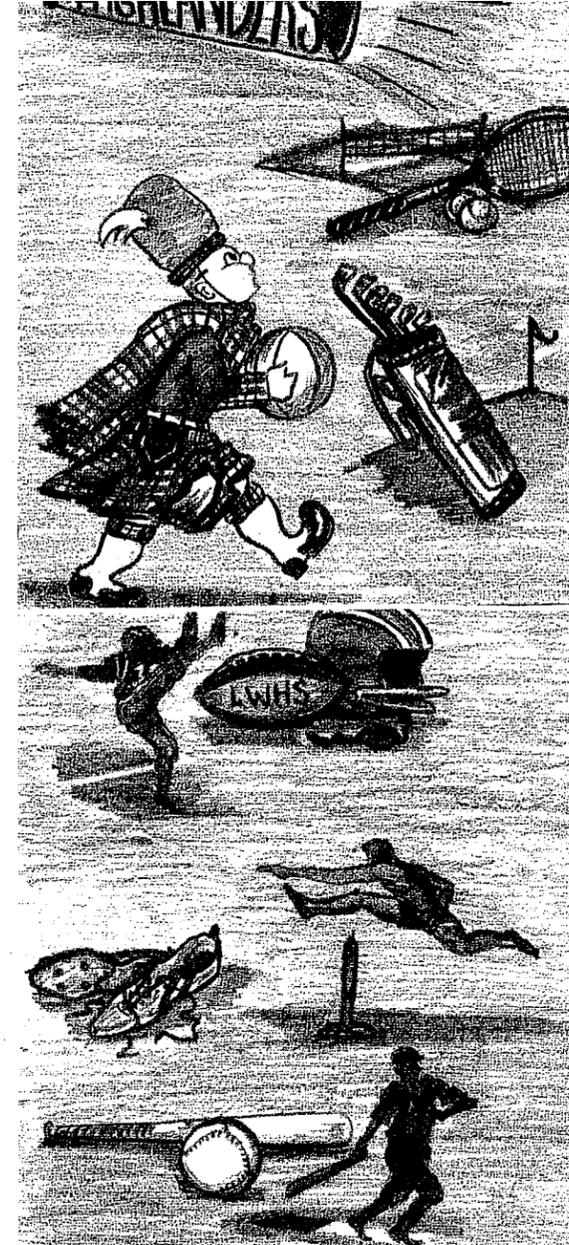

STUDIES . . .

SPIRIT

You are the meaning of a high school. You are a cheer, a frown, a smile, a new dress. You wear madras, you join in, you make a reputation. You have a place. You are a crowd. You are a handshake. You are a player. You are a tradition. You are the Spirit of Lake Wales High School.

YOU HAVE A PLACE

"Sleep all day and smooch all night for the glory of Lake Wales High . . ."

The calm before the storm.

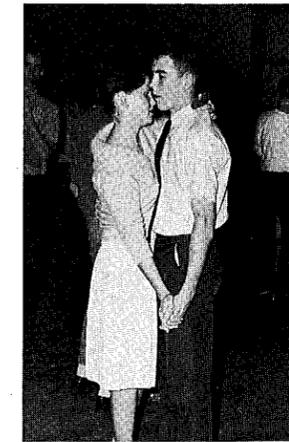

Brief pause in a busy routine.

As freshmen we learn to learn.

A fling flung with a flair.

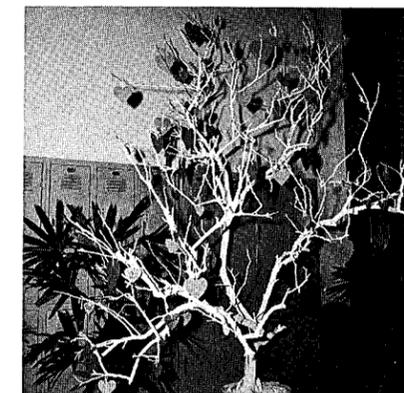

Brotherly love—but for whom?

Tired?—Have a desk.

Nose to nose.

A wonder of nature.

YOU ARE A REFLECTION

OF SCHOOL LIFE

Hail to the Highlanders,
We sing their praises high;
May the Orange and Black
Of Lake Wales High School ever signify
Glory and honor and loyalty;
Hail Highlanders, Hail to thee;
Lake Wales High, our Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to thee.

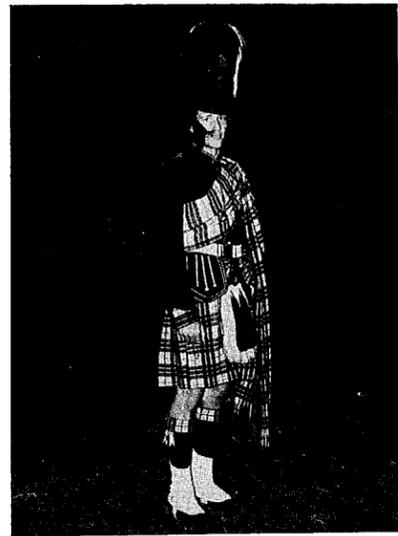

Photograph by Ruth Gilman

Aw, c'mon—yellll

Gonna win, by golly!

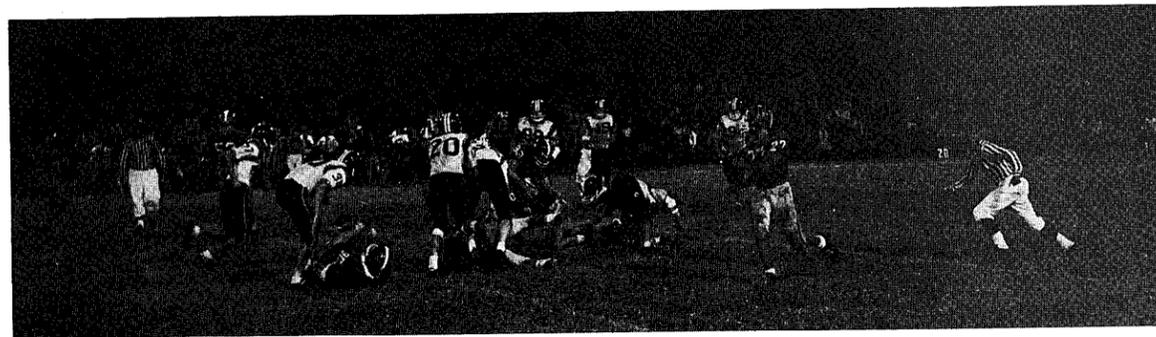

The smell of "bonnie wee Scotland."

Eeeeeeeeeeeelll

... for the glory of our team.

Hit 'em high—hit 'em low.

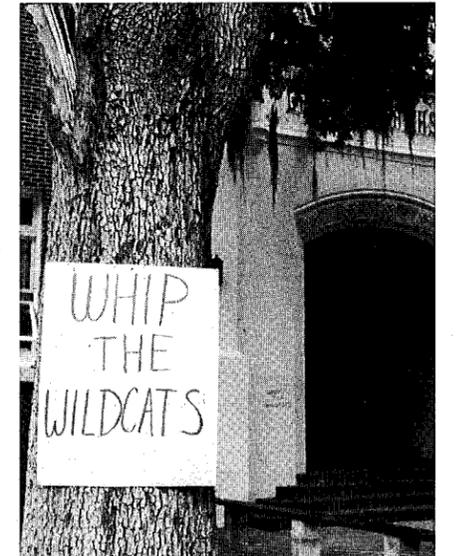

"H" is for Highlanders—happy as can be.

A little mascot for a big, big team!

A meeting of the minds??

We did whip the Wildcats . . . and the Panthers . . . and the Yellow Jackets . . . and the Hornets . . .

YOU ARE A CELEBRATION:

How did they ever pass inspection?

The only Joy in our lives.

First prize—DCT (of course).

This lovely graveyard won second prize.

All hornets are divided into three parts—color them defeated.

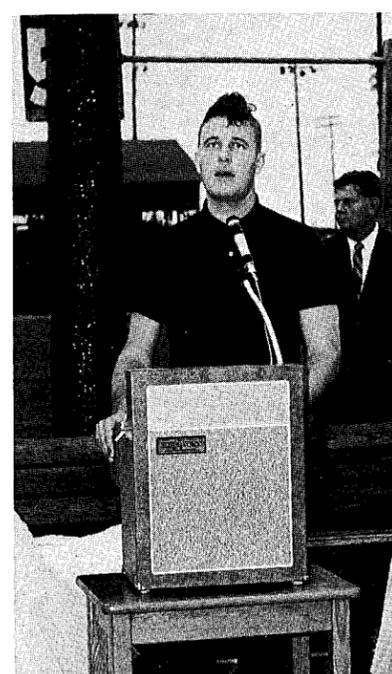

Sophomores' wishing worked!

HOMECOMING 1963

Thoughts of the forthcoming victory.

"The boys worked hard . . ."

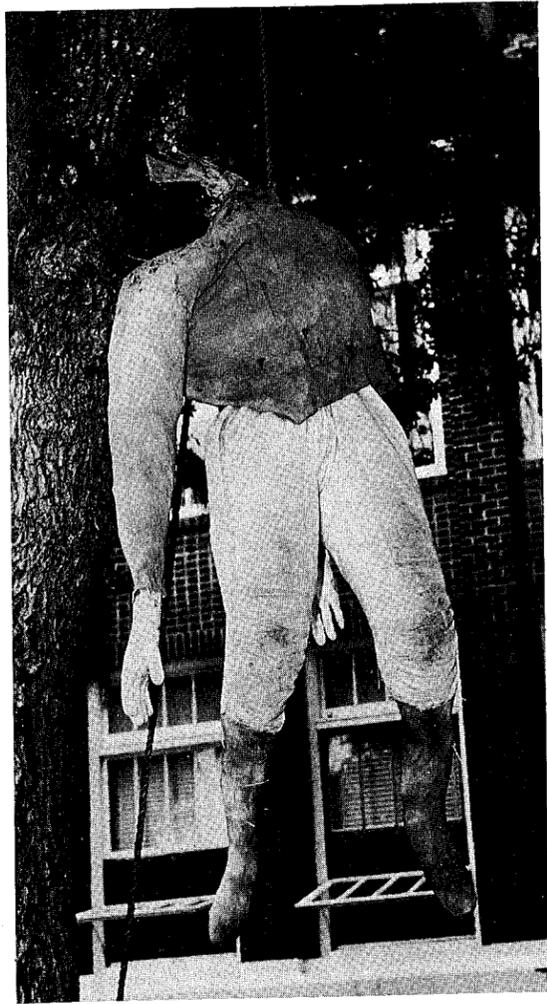

"We've really been working . . ."

"Your team works hard . . ."

Bart took us on the traditional "quick trip" of the town.

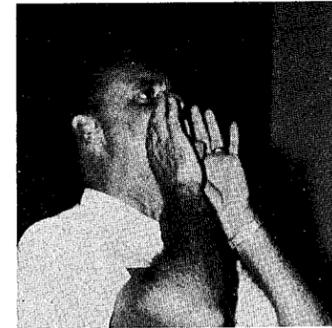

One sad hornet . . .

A new way to spell UNDEFEATED.

Sing!! "C'mon, let's cheer . . ."

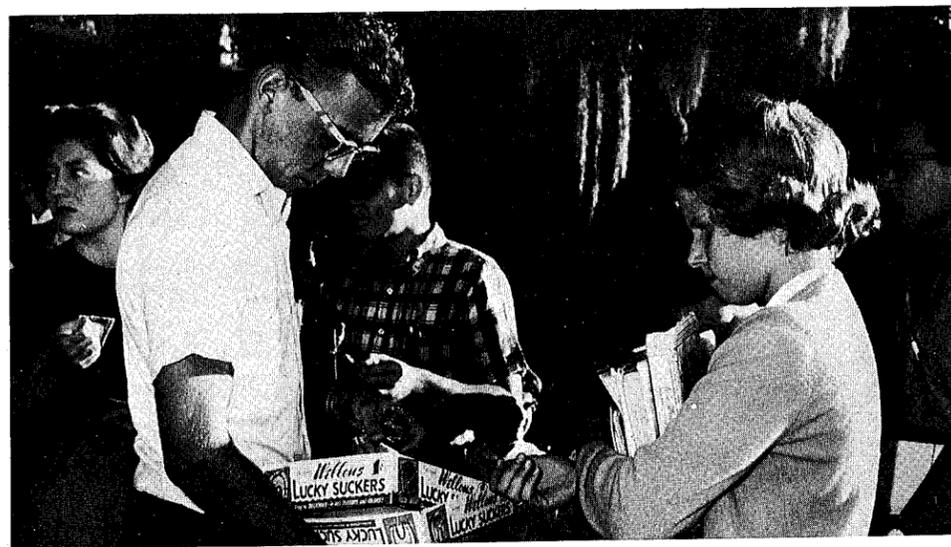

School spirit—or just hungry?

Why don't you say it with flowers?

"Southern Special" for a special Southern Team.

"All for Lake Wales stand up and holler!"

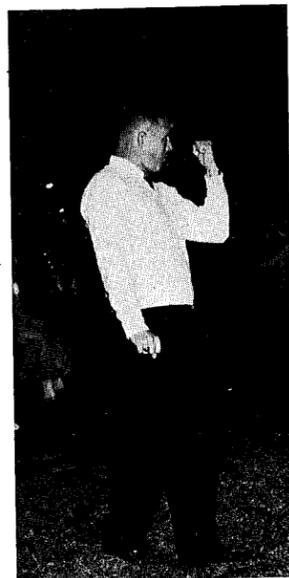

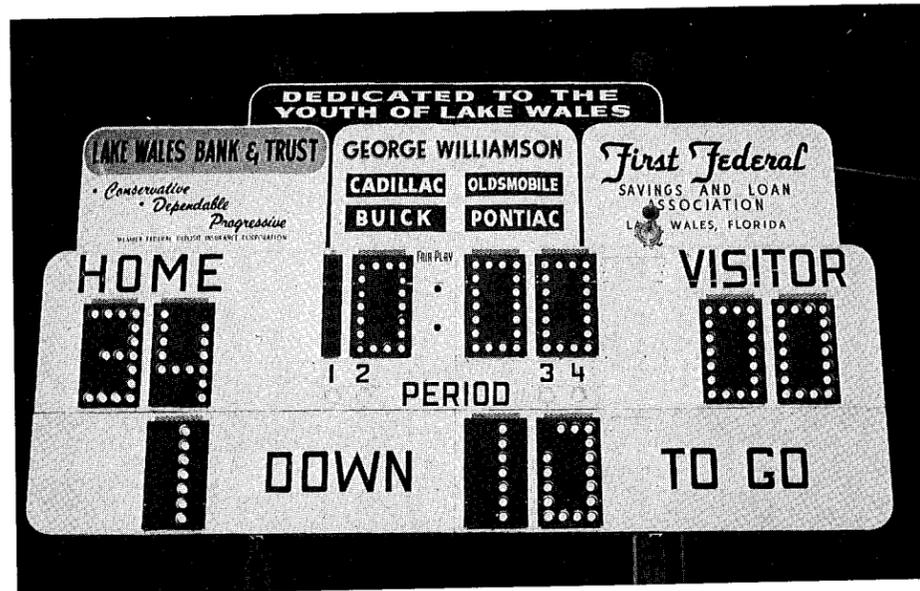

Heads, we win; tails, you lose.

Spirit in its quietest form.

Hit 'em hard, boys!

A sure sign of victory.

Good game, boys, good game.

Freshman Prissy Chelette and escort Skip Stevens; Sophomore Nita Plemens and escort Alan Morrow; Junior Melinda Morris and escort Eddie Harris; Queen Candidates, Ann Stanton and escort David Fann; Buffy Combs and escort Mike Marston; Kathy Cain and escort Terry Mann.

Ann beams as Homecoming Queen 1963.

Well, would you like to dance?

Six lovely girls pose with their proud escorts.

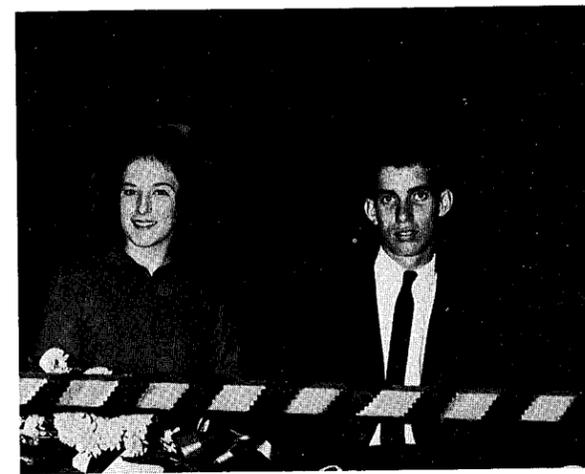

On January 18, a speech by Coach Pederson plus excitement plus the conference championship plus all-conference players equals a special celebration for a very special team—the Football Banquet, 1964.

Football sponsor Sharon Newell and escort Jimmy Underwood.

SENIOR TEA

The mothers' view of their senior "children."

We learn to be adults.

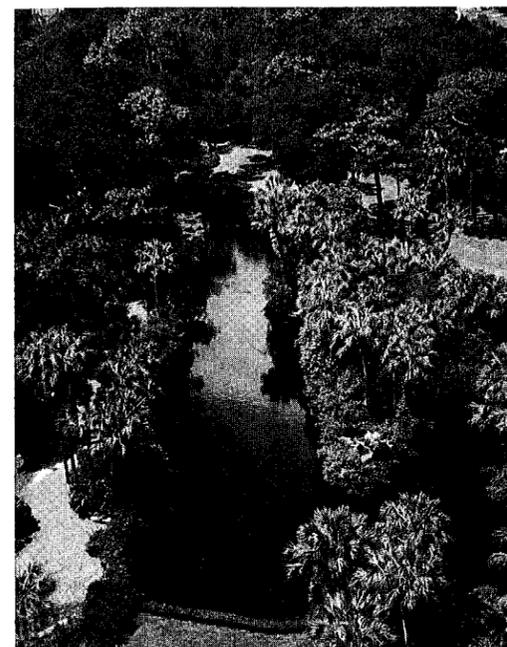

Sink it, in the good old Lake Wales High tradition.

First a brief talk, then . . .

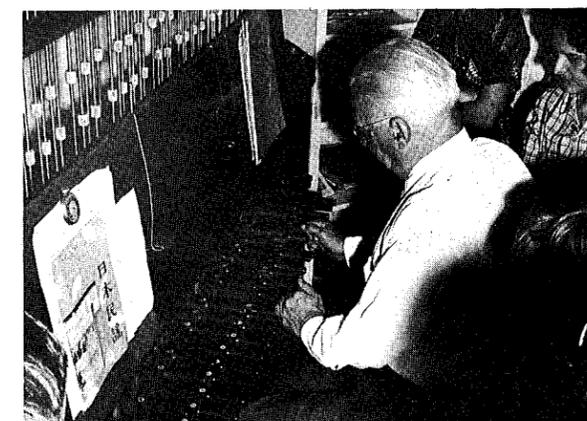

up the stairs . . . and up the stairs . . . and up . . .

"I come here to find myself."

This view would be a lot prettier if my feet didn't hurt.

Mr. Brees demonstrates.

Mr. Kinzie also demonstrates.

IN HONOR OF BEAUTY:

The Court stands regally, waiting to be entertained.

A moment's hesitation . . . then the honor of being Queen of the May.

The hush of the crowd—"Miss Ann Stanton, May Queen 1964!"

A web of excitement.

"How did they ever make that?"

Attention! March!

We found the "seafood" delicious.

An oceanful of beautiful fishes.

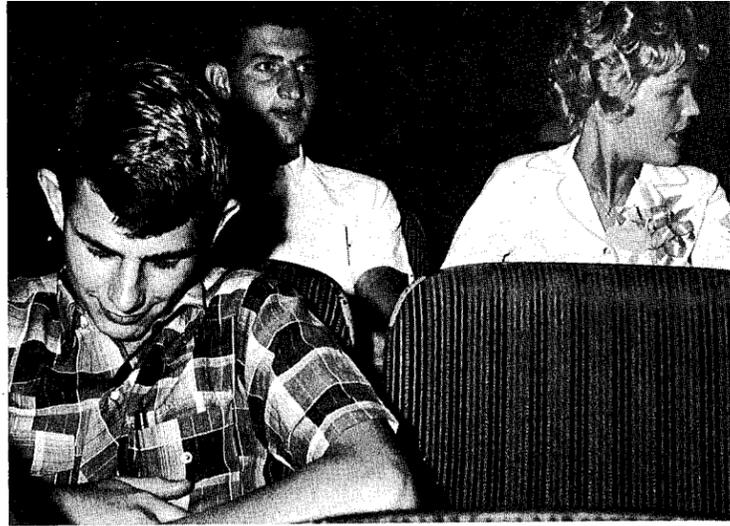

Fish nets and food attracted much attention.

The pause that refreshes.

YOU ARE A TRADITION: MOVING DAY

The many moods of a midnight movie.

I'll take two, please.

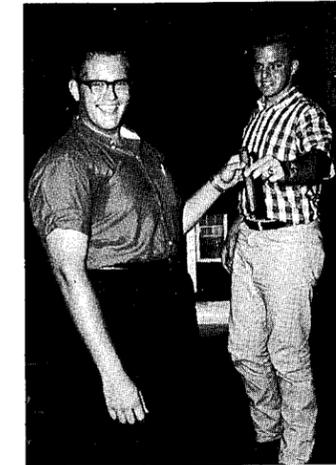

The nautical theme was carried on throughout the all night parties.

All you can eat for free!

Our CARE package camel At last!

I, Rodney Weeks, being of sound (?) mind and . . .

Oh, Diane, you must be "teasing" me.

Kathy's will must be a secret.

Gently, Dennis, gently.

And finally, we, the Seniors. . .

SERVICE

You give, and in giving you get. You serve, and in serving you learn to do your part. You clean lockers, you bake cupcakes, you attend meetings. You make friends—friends who admire you as well as like you. You buy a pin—a memory you can keep forever. You are a cheerleader. You are a worker. You are a member. You are Service to Lake Wales High School.

HONOR SOCIETY

Holy Week Devotionals were a great inspiration to the students during the Easter Week.

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character are the requirements for admission to the most esteemed club in the high school. This year, the Lake Wales chapter of the National Honor Society was very active. Tams for Homecoming, money for Care, Holy Week devotionals, helping with Operation Bootstrap, and a Thanksgiving Program were among its most outstanding accomplishments. Rounding out a highly successful year, the Juniors honored the Senior members with a lovely dinner.

Lee Debault, Albert Blevins, and Ed Reams became members during the second semester.

STUDENT COUNCIL

With the opening of the doors at the beginning of the school year, the Student Council of Lake Wales High School began many worthwhile and interesting projects. Among these were the annual Christmas Dance, Homecoming, the Student Directory, and helping with Operation Bookstrap. A major project which was started this year, but which will be in full force next year was a student exchange program.

Selling supplies is a regular project of the Student Council.

In President Bart's words, "assembly is dismissed, Seniors out first."

FIRST ROW: S. Burr (Chaplain), K. Whitlock (Sec.), C. Griffith (Pres.), Mrs. Proctor (Sponsor), S. Sutton (Treas.), K. Cain (V-Pres.), E. Wolfson. SECOND ROW: K. Manry, C. Martin, A. Murdoch, P. Stephens, B. Combs, S. Hamilton, D. McCoy, R. Tindell, J. Sikes,

BEACON CLUB

The BPWC honored the Beacon Club with a lovely officer initiation ceremony.

Follow the guiding light—Service. This is the primary objective of the Beacon Club of Lake Wales High School. To fulfill its goal of service to the school, the Beacon Club furnishes flowers for the office and teachers' room, it helps with Operation Bookstrap and at the Halloween Carnivals, and it presented an educational assembly program. To highlight the girls' spirit of Christmas, they gave Christmas boxes to needy families. A very successful year was terminated by a Beacon Club—Key Club party and the initiation of new members.

Iron 'em out Highlanders!

FIRST ROW: P. Kinzie, E. Harris, T. Kenney (Sec.), P. Hearn (V-Pres.), Mr. Campbell (Sponsor), S. Eckels (Pres.), D. Stephenson (Treas.), B. Fejes, L. Turnquist. SECOND ROW: S. Young, D. Glisson, D. Powell, D. Bowers, D. Fann, R. Ingley, P. Coleman, J. Merchant,

"We Build"—this is the essence of what Key Club means to LWHS. In an effort to build his school and community, this year's Key Clubber worked for Operation Bookstrap, and raised money for the March of Dimes and the Polk County Health Center. The honored name of the Kiwanis Club is carried through to its junior organization, the Key Club.

Will the meeting please come to order?

What a nice way to end the year!

KEY CLUB

INTERACT CLUB

Raise your right hand and repeat after me.

The four way test of the things we think, say, or do is the foundation of the Interact Club of Lake Wales High School, sponsored by the Rotary Club. Among their projects this year were helping with Operation Bookstrap, selling State Theater discount cards, and sponsoring a dance. A new track board also dons the wall of the gymnasium thanks to the Interact Club.

LATIN CLUB

"Veni, Vidi, Vici—I came, I saw, I conquered," thus quotes a Latin Club alumnus. A very active organization, the Latin Club contributes much to the school activities. In the Homecoming parade, the impressive "feast of the Gods" won second prize. The hilarious Slave Auction and annual slave day provided a day of rest for many upper classmen. Our high school was well represented by several students at the State Forum where Ronald Johnson won second prize in mythology. The entire club enjoyed a festive banquet with alumni as guests of honor. Thus ended a full, exciting year for the Latin Club.

Bid and buy!

How's that for service?

The Spanish Club, often called Los Picaros, is composed of students interested in Spanish-speaking countries. This year the club sold Christmas cards, the proceeds going toward the purchase of an air conditioner. The club also made a trip to Clearwater Beach. Spanish is made especially enjoyable through the activities of this organization.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The future of the United States is in the hands of the youth of today. With the goal of making America's future outstanding, the Future Homemakers of America undertook many important projects this year. A stay-in-school campaign involved much hard work, but was exceedingly successful. Among their other activities were a fashion show, the Sweetheart Dance, a Christmas Basket and FHA Week. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was a perfect end to a wonderful year.

Mary Jo initiates many new members into the club this year.

Mary Jo Holland was elected State Vice-President of the FHA and Kathy Kimbrel was awarded a State Degree for achievement in the FHA.

Mothers and daughters enjoyed a night out together.

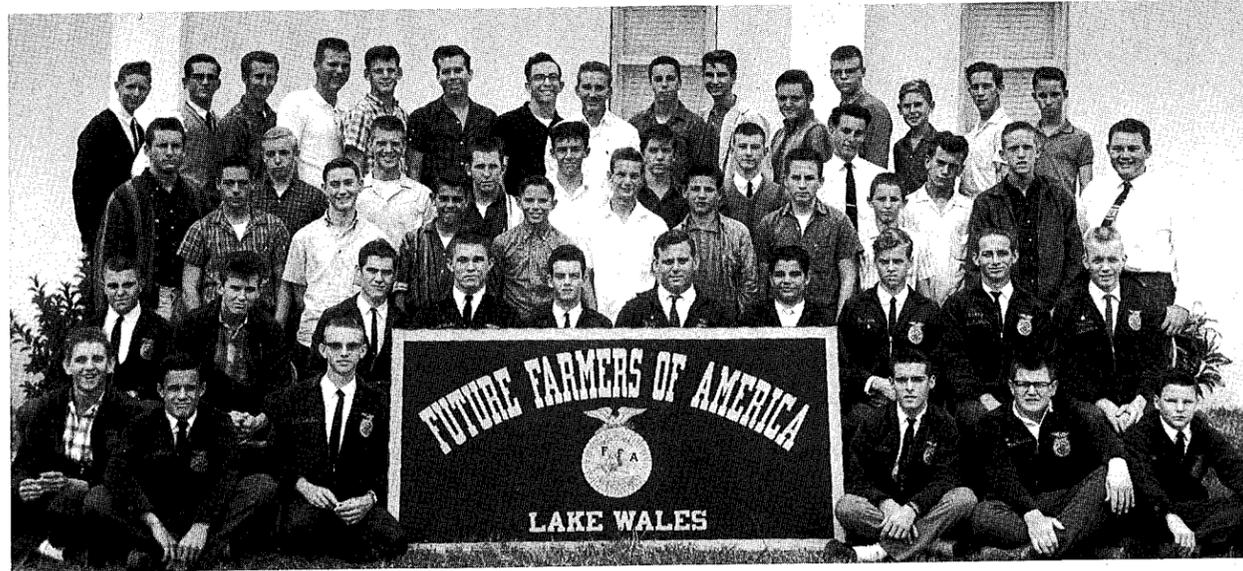

The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was a great success.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Learning agriculture and the ways of the farmer are the goal of the Future Farmers of America. Some of the projects of this group are raising steers, planting seedbeds, and making exhibits for the Youth Fair. The efforts of the boys were rewarded at the annual Father-Son Banquet at which time several of the boys were recognized for outstanding achievement.

The seedbeds show the boys the early stages of a plant's life.

The greenhouse is a very rewarding project of the FFA.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

This lovely picture was given to the library by Donna Perdue.

Two new air conditioners cool our library now.

"These people have overdue library books."—this is the old familiar cry of ever patient and always helpful Miss Tillman and her Library Council. Interesting bulletin boards and colorful exhibits greet the change of seasons and "advertise" new books. With the Library Council members as guides, our library features "new worlds to conquer."

A clearer understanding of our form of government and the responsibility of the citizen is a primary aim of the Problems of Democracy class. Some of their extracurricular activities were a tour of a newspaper office, the publication of the Scotline, a campaign against the effect of tobacco, and a car wash. Highlighting the year was a trip to St. Augustine.

PROBLEMS OF DEMOCRACY

Does it take all of these people to wash one car?

These people write and publish the Scotline.

CHEERLEADERS

Go team, fight team, win tonight! This and many other vigorous cheers led our boys on to victory. A very energetic group of cheerleaders supported all of our teams and led the students in rousing, victorious cheers. In order to add school spirit, the cheerleaders decorated the school before each game. A lovely Cheerleader Banquet ended the year.

Let's go big team; let's go!

Cheerleader sponsor, Mrs. Smith and manager, Kathy Manry, are also a primary part of the cheerleading squad.

LAKE WALES HIGH

"We're doing fine Oklahoma—Oklahoma! OK!" On this last note, the Lake Wales High School Chorus ended a highly successful year. The students were proud of their fine Christmas Concert and of the equally beautiful Easter Sunrise Service. By sponsoring Twirp Week, the Chorus provided fun for the entire school. For all their efforts and hard work, they were awarded high honors at district and state music contests. Keeping up the tradition of previous years, the Chorus displayed the excellence of Lake Wales High School.

The Chorus entertained us with a Christmas program again this year.

DIVERSIFIED COOPERATIVE TRAINING

Under the leadership of Mr. Leon Perry, the DCT is a training program for students who plan to start their vocation immediately following high school. For being a very active organization they won special recognition at the State Convention. As usual they also won first prize for their float in the Homecoming parade.

STUDIES

You are self-confident. You attained your confidence through study. You spend hours proving theorems, balancing equations, writing essays. You learn not only facts. You learn to live and to love. You are a book report, a late paper, an A+. You are, in a sense, a teacher. You are a thought. You are an idea. You are the Scholarship of Lake Wales High School.

ADMINISTRATORS

"Condemn acts; not individuals.
 Be charitable toward critics.
 Profit when criticism is deserved;
 when not deserved, respond in kind deeds,
 not in words. Practice the Golden Rule.
 Accept without complaint that which is asked beyond the call of duty."

Mr. McLaughlin

"One of the greatest blessings a person can enjoy, is the will to work. Work that must be done, whether we want to or not, is an important force in building men. A person who is forced to work and forced to do his best will develop most of the traits which will lead to success in life. There is no substitute for work."
