

Teacher on Special Assignment for Ethnic & Gender Studies

Job Goals:

The Ethnic & Gender Studies (EGS) Teacher on Special Assignment (TOSA) is under the direction of the Site Principal. They will assist in the planning, developing, and implementation of EGS courses.

Performance Responsibilities and Duties:

- Assist with the review, selection, and implementation of new curriculum for departments.
- Assist the hosting department in deciding how each course will monitor student progress.
- Create and distribute Common Formative Assessments (CFAs) qualitative and quantitative data to support the hosting department's Professional Learning Communities (PLCs).
- Facilitate and support department PLCs in the development of strategies to address students who are not meeting standards.
- Provide support and/or training utilizing district-wide approved software.

Desired Qualifications:

- Interpersonal skills in relating to and understanding the needs of teachers.

Required Qualifications:

- Have a minimum of five (5) years of successful classroom teaching experience.
- Possess a valid California Single-Subject credential.

8/8/2022