

Academy for Future Teachers

Summer 2022

A 2-week hybrid experience for high school students interested in exploring teaching as a profession focused on Culturally Relevant STEM instruction

Hosted by FVSU College of Education & Professional Studies

June 13-24, 2022
Mondays – Fridays at 8:00AM-4:00PM

About AFT '22

- Exploration of 21st-century teaching
- Have fun & practice new skills as you develop lessons for middle school and elementary students
- Strengthen STEAM/STEM skills - including math, science, arts, and computer science

Is AFT '22 for you?

- Rising 10th, 11th, and 12th graders
- Opportunity to connect with professors, teachers, and students from Fort Valley State University and surrounding K-12 school systems
- $200 Stipend for full attendance and participation

Interested candidates please click HERE

“Preparing Proficient STEM Educators”

For more Information please contact
Rebecca McMullen or Jessica Jefferson

mcmullenr@fvsu.edu or jeffersonj@fvsu.edu

AFT '22 Co-Directors

FORT VALLEY
STATE UNIVERSITY
EMPOWER the POSSIBLE.

A program of Project NURTURE

ACADEMY FOR FUTURE TEACHERS