Code of Conduct Policies

When purchasing a homecoming dance ticket, all students are agreeing to the following guidelines.

- Not to drink alcoholic beverages BEFORE or DURING the school function.
- Not to smoke BEFORE or DURING the school function.
- To conduct oneself as a lady or gentleman at all times during the school function.
- To uphold ALL Murphy High School and Mobile County Public Schools RULES and REGULATIONS.

Students on the Do Not Admit list or students with discipline problems will not be allowed to attend the dance and should not purchase a ticket. Tickets are non-refundable and non-exchangeable, even if the student is disciplined after buying a ticket.

Dress Code for Ladies

- ❖ The Homecoming dance is not a formal affair; it is semi-formal! This means that ladies can wear anything from a nice “Sunday” dress or skirt and blouse, to a sparkly party dress.
- ❖ Usually dresses are not floor length—hems go from mid-shin to above the knee.
- ❖ Cut-outs, deep open necklines, and low open backs are NOT allowed.
- ❖ Remember—this is a school dance, not an adult Mardi Gras ball!
- ❖ If in doubt – see Mrs. Crandle-Brown or Mrs. Jones with a photo of your dress BEFORE you buy it!
- ❖ Wear shoes that you can DANCE in!
