Dedication...

Mrs. Duffey is a hard-working woman whose heart is at Central High School. She is at school every day giving her one-hundred percent no matter what. She is always willing to help whenever we trot into the office asking for favors, sometimes multiple times a day. No matter how crazy we get, Mrs. Duffey never gets upset with us. We are sincerely grateful for her positive attitude. She is trendy and fun and never fails to have a smile on her face! She truly cares about the students here at Central and gives them her undivided attention through good times and bad! She supports us with our ideas and offers her advice and compassion. When we think of the word dedicated, Mrs. Duffey comes to our minds. She is a great person and is sincere with everything she says and does. She is a person we can always confide in and depend on. Throughout the years we have grown very close to Mrs. Duffey. We look at her not just as a part of our Central High staff, but as our friend—she will always be special to the Class of 2007. We are honored to dedicate this yearbook to...

Ladies and Gentlemen of the class of '07

If I could offer you only one tip for the future, sunscreen would be it. The long term benefits of sunscreen have been proved by scientists whereas the rest of my advice has no basis more reliable than my own meandering experience....

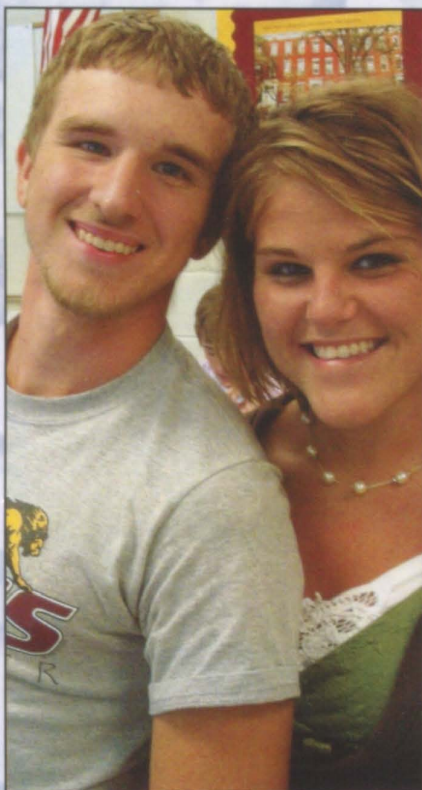

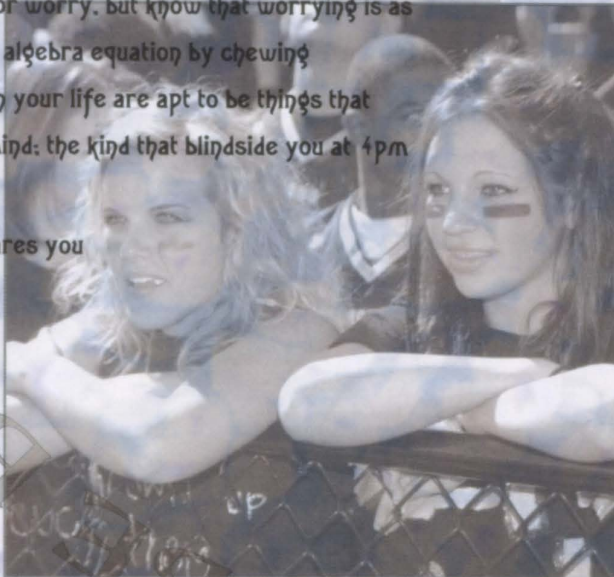

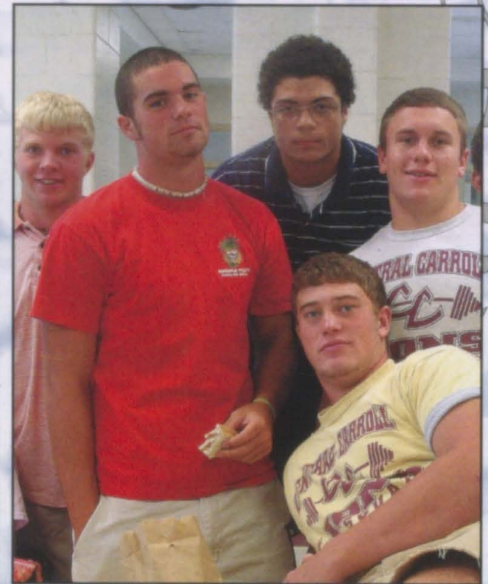

I will dispense this advice now.

Enjoy the power and beauty of your youth; oh nevermind; you will not understand the power and beauty of your youth until they have faded. But trust me, in 20 years you'll look back at photos of yourself and recall in a way you can't grasp how how much possibility lay before you and how fabulous you really looked.... You're not as fat as you imagine.

Don't worry about the future; or worry, but know that worrying is as effective as trying to solve an algebra equation by chewing bubblegum. The real troubles in your life are apt to be things that never crossed your worried mind; the kind that blindside you at 4pm on some idle Tuesday.

Do one thing everyday that scares you

Sing

Don't be reckless with other people's hearts; don't put up with people who are reckless with yours.

Floss

Don't waste your time on jealousy; sometimes you're ahead, sometimes you're behind...the race is long, and in the end, it's only with yourself.

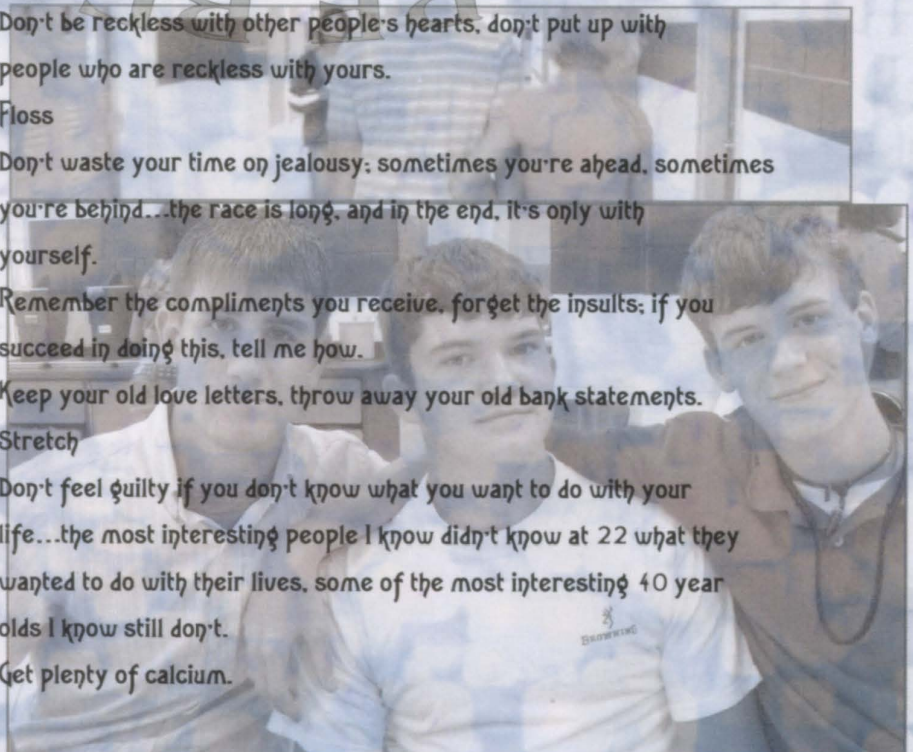

Remember the compliments you receive; forget the insults; if you succeed in doing this, tell me how.

Keep your old love letters; throw away your old bank statements.

Stretch

Don't feel guilty if you don't know what you want to do with your life...the most interesting people I know didn't know at 22 what they wanted to do with their lives, some of the most interesting 40 year olds I know still don't.

Get plenty of calcium.

Be kind to your knees, you'll miss them when they're gone.
Maybe you'll marry, maybe you won't, maybe you'll have children, maybe you won't, maybe you'll divorce at 40, maybe you'll dance the funky chicken on your 75th wedding anniversary...what ever you do, don't congratulate yourself too much or berate yourself either - your choices are half chance, so are everybody else's. Enjoy your body, use it every way you can...don't be afraid of it, or what other people think of it, it's the greatest instrument you'll ever own..

Dance...even if you have nowhere to do it but in your own living room. Read the directions, even if you don't follow them.

Do NOT read beauty magazines, they will only make you feel ugly.
Get to know your parents, you never know when they'll be gone for good.

Be nice to your siblings; they are the best link to your past and the people most likely to stick with you in the future.

Understand that friends come and go, but for the precious few you should hold on. Work hard to bridge the gaps in geography and lifestyle because the older you get, the more you need the people you knew when you were young.

Live in New York City once, but leave before it makes you hard; live in Northern California once, but leave before it makes you soft.
Travel.

Accept certain inalienable truths, prices will rise, politicians will philander, you too will get old, and when you do you'll fantasize that when you were young prices were reasonable, politicians were noble and children respected their elders.

Respect your elders.

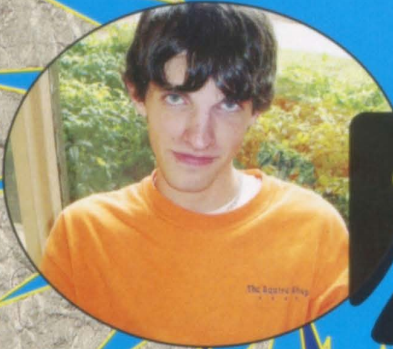

Don't expect anyone else to support you. Maybe you have a trust fund, maybe you have a wealthy spouse, but you never know when either one might run out.

Don't mess too much with your hair, or by the time you're 40, it will look 85.

Be careful whose advice you buy, but be patient with those who supply it. Advice is a form of nostalgia, dispensing it is a way of fishing the past from the disposal, wiping it off, painting over the ugly parts and recycling it for more than it's worth.

But trust me on the sunscreen...

In Memory

J.C. Ferrell

October 12, 1989 - January 15, 2007

J.C. WAS MY BEST FRIEND. HE WAS MORE THAN THAT THOUGH; HE WAS MY BROTHER. ALTHOUGH WE WEREN'T BLOOD RELATED, I FELT LIKE WE WERE. ANYONE WHO SAW US TOGETHER WOULD ALWAYS ASK IF WE WERE BROTHERS. HE WAS AT MY HOUSE ALMOST EVERY DAY. J.C. WAS THE BEST PERSON I HAVE EVER AND WILL EVER MEET. HE HAD SUCH A BIG HEART AND HE WAS A TRUE FRIEND. HE COULD ALWAYS MAKE ME LAUGH. WE HAD SO MANY INSIDE JOKES. I THINK BACK TO THE GOOD TIMES WE HAD, SUCH AS GOING TO CONCERTS TOGETHER, SINGING FUNNY SONGS IN HARMONY, OR LISTENING TO "WHAT IS LOVE" IN MY CAR AND CHEESING, AND I GET SAD. I'M SAD BECAUSE HE'S NOT HERE FOR ME TO DO THOSE THINGS ANYMORE. THERE'S NOT A SECOND THAT GOES BY THAT I DON'T THINK ABOUT HIM. I MISS HIM SO MUCH. LIFE WILL NEVER BE THE SAME WITHOUT HIM. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH, J.C. FERRELL.

- CODY BAUM

When J.C. died, I began to see people together that I never thought would be friends. People were coming together to comfort one another. In his own way, J.C. brought all of us closer.

- Megan Warren

My best memory about this year was being able to spend half the year with J.C. Ferrell. I miss you so much!

- Natalie Harper

J.C. could always make us laugh. We'll never forget how he cracked us up in Ms. Sherrill's and Ms. Boldt's class!

What words could ever express the absolute joy you bring to our lives each and every day? It seems just yesterday you were a precious little boy entertaining us with your wild imagination. We turned around and our little boy had grown into an amazing young man. You make sure our life is never dull! You keep us laughing, but just as easily, you share brilliant observations and profound thoughts that astound us. As you close this chapter of your life, remember, the best is yet to be. You were put here, at this time, for a purpose that only God knows. Seek God first, seek Him only, and stand in the path until you hear His voice saying "this is the way, walk in it". We love you dearly and are so proud of you. You know how much Lalee loved you. She would be just as proud of the man you've become.

"Andrew",
 Wow! I can't believe we're graduating! I'm so proud of you and your many accomplishments. I'm so glad you've allowed me to be the one you share your many memories with. I love you so much, not even words can express how much you mean to me. Now, as we go off to college, remember I'm always here for you. I wish you the best of luck and when the toughest times come around, look to the skies, God has all the answers. I love you, Andrew, always and forever.

ADAM LANCE RAYBURN

There are two things that we give our children. One is roots and the other is wings. Up to this point we have worked to nurture you and help develop the roots that keep you firmly planted and able to withstand the passing storms. These have been the years that we watched you grow into the man that you have now become. We know you as the little boy who was quiet and shy in public, yet outgoing and funny at home. You were comfortable standing in the shadows and watching others, yet just as comfortable being the center of attention with those that love you. It's those roots that give you the strength to be all of these things. Now comes the time for us to give you the second of those two things. The next phase of life will not only be an opportunity, but it will require that you spread your wings and learn to fly. The opportunities ahead are only limited by your willingness to try out those wings. Your parents, your brothers, your sister, and all of your family are standing by waiting to watch you fly. Fly high Adam. Reach the heights that we only dreamed of. Just remember that no matter how high you soar and no matter how far out you venture, your roots are still here to keep you stable and safe from the passing storms.

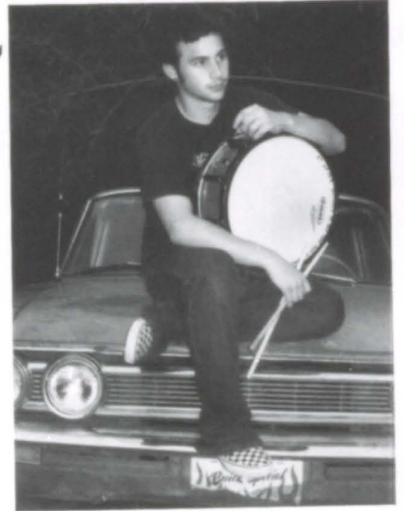

WE LOVE YOU, MAMA, DADDY, RYAN, BRANDON, EMILY, TYLER AND RILEY

Kimberly,

We knew, when we met you, you were special. Even as a 9 year old, you could make us smile when we didn't feel like smiling. You have been through some times that would make any other person give up. You have been through the valley where you probably thought no one cares, then to the mountain top of love and friendship. You have the determination of a newly winged eagle. God places us in situations that put pressure on us, but like a diamond that is under pressure to shine, YOU ARE OUR DIAMOND! Shine Baby Shine.

My words are too small to express the happiness you have brought to our lives. Be proud of who you are. Always have faith and keep God first in your life. Enjoy the journey as you pursue your dreams and never give up. With serenity listen to your heart and keep a song in it. I wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence and wisdom. I know you can accomplish whatever goal you choose in life. Always remember how much you are loved for you are a good and caring person... a man we are proud to have for a son.
