Dr. Cheryl Thomas Named Assistant Superintendent for School Operations

HOUSTON COUNTY, GA – Dr. Cheryl Thomas has been selected as the Assistant Superintendent for School Operations. Dr. Thomas has been with the Houston County School District for more than 20 years. She most recently served as the Executive Director of School Operations for the District.

“I am so proud to call Houston County my home, and I am honored to be able to serve our schools and community,” shared Thomas. “My whole career has been deeply rooted in Houston County, and I could not be more grateful to be a part of a school district that continues a tradition of excellence year after year.”

Dr. Thomas is a native of Brockport, New York. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from the State University of New York at Cortland. She earned a Master of Education in Reading from Georgia Southwestern, as well as a Specialist and Doctoral degree, both in Educational Leadership from Argosy University.

Dr. Thomas joined the Houston County School District as a teacher at Miller Elementary School before moving to Eagle Springs Elementary. In 2004, Dr. Thomas began serving in a leadership role as the Assistant Principal of Instruction at Quail Run Elementary and later was selected as the Principal, which was a role she held for 12 years. In 2019, Dr. Thomas was named Director of School Operations at the District’s Central Office before being named the Executive Director of School Operations in 2021.

“I have been so fortunate to have worked under exceptional leadership throughout my career in Houston County,” added Thomas. “I look forward to continuing to support all of our employees, students, parents, and our community to produce high-achieving students in a district that is world class.”

Dr. Thomas is married to Ronnie who serves as an agriculture teacher at Houston County High School. They have two children, Grace who is a junior at Kennesaw State University majoring in Elementary Education, and Ronnie, a senior at Houston County High School.
