Bunkie Senior High
Bunkie, Louisiana
Volume XXI

There was a time when meadow grove and stream
The earth and every common sight
To me did seem Appareled in celestial light
The glory and the freshness of a dream,
It is not now as it hath been of yore —
Twin wheresoever day,
The things which I have seen I now can see no more —

William Wordsworth

In Dedication to . . .

Malcolm Bourg

eam

The innocent brightness of a new-born day

Is lovely yet;

The clouds that gather round the setting sun
Do take a sober coloring from a eye That hath kept watch o'er man's mortality;

Another race hath been, and other palms are won.

Thanks to the human heart by which we live,
Thanks to its tenderness, its joys,
and fears

To me the meanest flower that blows can give — Thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears.
