On Thursday, May 26, the Shelby School Board met to review applications for the open superintendent position.

A special board meeting will be held Thursday, June 2, starting at 5:10pm at Shelby High School in the Media Center to interview applicants. The public is invited to attend the interviews, as these are open meetings.

Below is the schedule for the four candidates invited to the first round of interviews for the position of Superintendent of Schools:

5:15 pm – Mr. Mark Olmstead, Shelby High School Principal

6:20 pm – Dr. Mark Forner, Mason County Eastern Elementary/Secondary School Principal

7:25 pm – Mr. Brad Reyburn, Newaygo High School Principal

8:30 pm – Mr. Dan Mesyar, Ludington High School Principal

Audience members will have the opportunity to provide input to the Board of Education through a feedback form.

It is anticipated that the Board will deliberate on June 2, and select candidates for a second-round interview for Thursday, June 9.

Questions may be directed to:

Tim Reeves

Shelby Superintendent
