SPORTS NEWS

This past weekend, our Lady Panthers once again dominated the mats, competing at the CIF Central Section Area 1 tournament hosted by Golden valley High School.
Team scores: Pioneer Valley 185 points, Selma 169, Sanger 140, and Santa Maria HS a distant 4th place with 112 points.

Pioneer Valley qualified 11 wrestlers to the CIF Central Section tournament.

Masters Qualifiers include:

Area 1 Finalists: Keira Nartatez 1st, Daniela Sierra 2nd, Yaretza Jimenez 2nd, and Sherleen Lainez 2nd

The other qualifiers were Isabela Resendez, Gabriela Martinez, Ashlie Hernandez, Dalilah Elenes, Ardriana Padilla, Annemarie Garcia, and Emily Magallon.

We are so proud you ladies! Coach Noel (Noel 2/13)

On Saturday our track teams competed in the 2nd Annual "Battle for the Baton" District opener. Our girls finished 1st and our Boys finished 2nd but it came up just short of winning the baton. We had many new Personal Records set and it was a great showing for our Panthers. Congrats to Natalie Diaz, Valeria Nunez, Jules Hernandez, Stephannie Jimenez, Makayla Gonzalez, and Carolina Leon on reaching CIF qualifying times in the 4x1 and 4x4 relay and punching their tickets to CIF in May! Congrats Panthers! (Alberry 2/13)

Good morning class of 2026. Tired of walking around at lunch with nothing to do? Pull up to the black top at lunch to play some basketball with your friends. Mr. Rule and Mr. DePaulo will be having intra mural sports at lunch every Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday until the end of the school year. We will be starting off with basketball on the blacktop until we get more gear to play other sports. We will also be open to listen to what sports you freshman would like to play. So come have some fun in the sun at lunch with Mr. Rule and Mr. DePaulo. Open to everyone so don't be sus and pull up to the black top for some intra mural sports. (Rule 2/13-14)

Any winter sport athletes who have completed their season and want to try out for volleyball...Tryouts will be Tuesday at 4:30pm (Quintana 2/13-14)
