Description	Flipped classrooms offer a dynamic approach to education by reversing the traditional model of learning. In this presentation, we'll explore how teachers can utilize pre-recorded lectures, pre-discussion questions, and digital resources to allow students to engage with content outside of class, freeing up valuable in-person time for collaborative activities, discussions, and personalized support. From fostering active learning to promoting student autonomy, we'll delve into the benefits and strategies for implementing flipped classrooms in grades 6 through 12.
