

Randolph County School System “STAR³ Students” for May 2022

Coleridge Elementary School - Braylen Brown - 4th Grade

Braylen Brown comes to school every day ready and eager to learn. In class she goes above and beyond what is expected of her and is always there to help others. Students in Braylen's class look up to her and know she is a trusted friend. In addition, she has shown that she is a leader. Braylen, an avid reader, joined our Elementary Battle of the Books team this year and showed true leadership skills as she modeled studious behavior for others and encouraged the team along the way. We are proud of Braylen's accomplishments and know that she has an amazing future ahead of her. Coleridge Elementary School proudly recognizes Braylen Brown as our STAR³ Student for May.

Eastern Randolph High School - Richard Hernandez - 12th Grade

When freshmen come into Wildcat Country, we encourage them to "Leave It Better Than They Found It." Richard Hernandez has certainly accomplished that goal. He has faced adversity in his life, but leveraged his challenges into growth opportunities. Richard is an outstanding student with impeccable manners. He was a valuable player on our varsity football team, is a helping hand to anyone in need, and is a friend to all he meets. He maintains excellent grades while working in the evenings, and is preparing to enlist in the U.S. Marines after graduation. Richard is a shining example of what hard work and perseverance can accomplish, and we know he is destined for great things. Congratulations to Richard Hernandez, Eastern Randolph High School's STAR³ Student for May.

Farmer Elementary School - Isis Tenneson - 3rd Grade

If you have ever felt happiness from a ray of sunshine, then you know what it is like to be around Isis Tenneson. Isis has overcome hurdles and obstacles and proved that she is a fighter, despite the odds and struggles that she has faced. Isis continues to work hard and never gives up when she faces a challenge. In addition to her willingness to always try, Isis always maintains a positive attitude, no matter the task. She always is smiling, willing to help anyone, and looking for ways to make the world a happier place. Farmer Elementary School is proud to name Isis Tenneson our STAR³ Student for May.

Seagrove Elementary School - Carson Jordan - 5th Grade

Carson Jordan is an all-around great student and person. He is a member of Beta Club and Safety Patrol. Because of his trustworthiness, Carson is regularly picked by his teacher to deliver or retrieve items from around school, and other teachers will also select him to help out. As a problem-solver, Carson tries different ways to find solutions to computer issues, and as a peer tutor, he explains difficult subject matter to struggling students without being asked. Carson is polite and well-mannered, along with many other positive attributes. Carson Jordan is an example of what a star student should look like, and Seagrove Elementary School is proud to select him as our STAR³ Student for May.

Southeastern Randolph Middle School - Miranda Carroll - 8th Grade

Miranda Carroll continues to improve her talents daily and has shown much growth this school year. She always is willing to step up and do what is right. Miranda advocates for herself and is a rare person who advocates for others. She always helps those in need. Though only an eighth grader, Miranda has passed all physical and written tests to become a junior firefighter, and can now attend official training and be included on the firefighter roster. At only 14 years old, Miranda is already able to begin going on calls and is set up for a career in firefighting! Miranda is a vocal leader with great confidence, and is a true Wildcat! Southeastern Randolph Middle School is proud to have Miranda Carroll as our STAR³ Student for May.

Southmont Elementary School - Addison Wood - 5th Grade

Addison Wood has made great progress this school year, improving in all academic areas. She is a good citizen in our school and in her classroom. Addison is kind to others and is a helper to her friends and teachers. Addison has persevered during her time in elementary school, and as she prepares to transition to middle school, we know that she will carry with her all of the skills and hard work she will need to continue to grow. In the words of her teacher, "Addison is a true 'star student' in every sense of the word." Addison embodies the attributes of a Southmont Mustang: Ready, Responsible, and Respectful! Southmont Elementary School is proud to honor Addison Wood as our STAR³ Student for May.

Southwestern Randolph High School - Lexie Cisneros - 9th Grade

Lexie Cisneros is exceptional in so many ways! When it comes to obstacles, she has had more than her share, but you will never hear her use these as an excuse. Instead, she uses them as motivation to work even harder. Lexie also has an amazing ability to focus on the positive in almost any situation, which is a quality many of us could stand to learn from her. Lexie's strong desire to learn, her willingness to self-advocate and ask for help when needed, along with her willingness to try new things, only add to her exceptional nature. One of the best things about Lexie is her joyful personality and her ability to make others smile. She very likely has no idea how many people she inspires each day. Congratulations, Lexie Cisneros, Southwestern Randolph's STAR³ Student for May.

Southwestern Randolph Middle School - Jade McNeill - 8th Grade

Jade McNeill is a very respectful student who is always doing her best at whatever she does. She has taken on Spanish I and II during her seventh and eighth grade year and seeks opportunities to go above and beyond what is asked of her. She always does the right thing and is a positive role model for her peers. Even during our remote learning, Jade strived to do her best. She stands out as a model student who can face obstacles head-on and be successful. Southwestern Randolph Middle School is very proud of Jade's success, we know she will do great things in the future, and we congratulate her on being selected our STAR³ Student for May.

Tabernacle Elementary School - Anjel Jimenez Flores - Kindergarten

Anjel Jimenez Flores comes to school every day eager to learn something new. He takes responsibility for his learning and tackles any challenge in his way. Anjel shows respect for his teachers, peers, and school by helping others in the classroom without being asked. He always is courteous and shows good manners in the classroom. Anjel Jimenez Flores' work ethic, eagerness to learn, and good character make him Tabernacle's STAR³ Student for May.

Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve - Laci Moran - 6th Grade

When you think of what a great student encompasses, Laci Moran displays such qualities. She is a role model for her peers and takes her job as a student seriously. Not only does she play multiple sports, she also maintains an excellent academic record. Laci's basketball coach, Mrs. Hill, says, "Laci is feisty on the basketball court. She worked hard at practice and always cheered on her teammates during games." Laci's volleyball coach, Mrs. Ingold, added, "Laci always gave her all during a game, even when the team was losing. She worked during every practice to improve her serve and game play." Laci is an active member of the Beta Club as well as Student Council. She is a leader, does what is asked of her without complaining, and is willing to help others. Laci is loyal, trustworthy, and conscientious. She displays school spirit, and has a willingness to learn new things and learn from her mistakes. Laci truly cares in every way and it shows in her attitude, work ethic, and friendships. Uwharrie Ridge Six-Twelve is truly blessed to have Laci Moran as our STAR³ Student for May.

The Virtual Academy at Randolph - Jacob Link - 8th Grade

It is difficult to put into words how much Jacob Link truly is the ideal student. He is respectful, participates in in-depth discussions in class, always turns in his work on time, and gives 110%. Jacob is well-liked by his peers and always shows the utmost respect to his peers and students. He is a bright student with a very bright future. From day one, Jacob has presented himself as the model virtual learner. He is on time and ready to learn and engage, with his camera on for every Google Meet. In addition to being an amazing student and person, Jacob is kind, benevolent, and always willing to help and encourage his fellow Voyagers. We will definitely be sad when Jacob leaves us next year; however, we know he will continue his success at Randolph Early College High School. Congratulations to Jacob Link, The Virtual Academy at Randolph's STAR³ Student for May.
