

August

Note from the teacher:

I'm so happy to have your kiddo in our class this year!! We will be working super hard this year so make sure you read with your student at home each night!!

Upcoming Events:

8/29 - School pictures
9/4 - NO SCHOOL!

Wish List:

Questions or concerns? Email me at: emily.clark@dcsms.org

Our learning focus this month:

MATH - We will be reviewing numbers 0-50. This will include counting, filling in missing numbers, and reading them to me!

READING - We are going to be reading Mo Willems books this week! The kiddos love these every year. Ask your student which book we read that day!!

PHONICS - 3 letter words with short vowels. This is a 2 week unit!

Homework: read a bedtime book to your kiddo! :)
