A Message to the Class of 2008

Graduation. Big time. Congratulations on a job WELL....DONE - the emphasis for parents is on WELL, but we know the emphasis for you graduates is on DONE. Of course, at this time, the expectation is that we should pass on some words of wisdom. After all, graduation exercises are called COMMENCEMENTS - beginnings. As you begin this next stage of your life, you wonder what lies ahead. "Been there, done that" are expected to offer advice or encouragement to get you going. What should we say? There is one more piece of advice or encouragement to get you going. Someone once said, "BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR...YOU JUST MIGHT GET IT!" So, be careful what you wish for, Mom, Dad,.. You just might get it! Graduation. For this year's class, both an end and a beginning. An exciting time. Life is filled with possibility. Just remember, BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR...YOU JUST MIGHT GET IT!"
